The 15th National Symposium and Workshop on Thermal Analysis

THERMANS 2006

University of Rajasthan
Jaipur, India

6–10 February, 2006

The Symposium and Workshop is sponsored by:
Board of Research in Nuclear Sciences (BRNS),
Department of Atomic Energy (DAE)
in association with the Indian Thermal Analysis Society (ITAS).

For registration:

SCOPE OF THE CONFERENCE

In this Symposium, it is planned to focus on the theme 'Thermoanalytical Investigations in Nuclear and Allied Areas'.

THE TOPICS OF CONFERENCE

- High temperature thermochemistry and phase equilibrium studies
- Thermochemical and thermophysical properties of nuclear fuel systems
- Solid state reactions and kinetics
- Conducting Polymers
- Nanomaterials
- Thermoanalytical studies of minerals, polymers and composites, pharmaceuticals, glass, ceramics, high energy materials, catalysts and biomaterials

DEADLINES

Pre-registration: August 31, 2005

Submission of papers: October 15, 2005

Acceptance of papers: November 15, 2005

Payment of registration fees: December 30, 2005

THE VENUE

Jaipur, also popularly known as the Pink City, historically sometimes rendered as Jeypore, is the capital of Rajasthan State, India. The city was founded in 1728 by Maharaja Jai Singh II, the ruler of Amber. The population in 2003 was approximately 2.7 million.

The University of Rajasthan is the oldest institution of higher learning in Rajasthan. It was established on 8 January 1947, as the University of Rajputana. In the year 1956, the Rajputana University was renamed as the University of Rajasthan. In spite of the creation of other universities it is still the hub of Higher Education in Rajasthan.

University of Rajasthan is a multi-faculty University with its campus spread over 285.50 acres and the satellite campus, comprising the Constituent Colleges, is spread over 149.53 acres.

The weather in February is very pleasant around 15 to 20°C during daytime and about 10°C in night.
