Call for Papers

2001 International Symposium on Wood and Pulping Chemistry
Palais des Congrès, Nice, France
June 11-14, 2001

The next International Symposium on Wood and Pulping Chemistry will be held June 11-14, 2001 at the Palais des Congrès in Nice, France. Sponsored by EUCEPA, TAPPI, PAPTAC, Chinese TAPPI, APPITA, Japan TAPPI, the Symposium will be organized by the French Association Technique de l'Industrie Papetière (ATIP). The Conference Chairman is François Vessière, President of EUCEPA and ATIP, Paris and the Program Chairman is Professor Dominique Lachenal of Ecole Française de Papeterie, Grenoble, France.

The program committee is seeking papers on recent research into wood and non-wood fibres, pulping, bleaching, recycling and papermaking chemistry. It will include the following topics:

- chemical structure of wood and wood components
- last developments in genetic engineering on woody plants
- high value chemicals from wood
- surface chemistry of wood, fibers and paper
- ageing chemistry of wood, pulp, paper and their components
- latest advances in pulping and bleaching chemistry
- chemistry of paper recycling
- chemical treatments of waste
- chemical aspects of mill systems closure
- chemicals and food contact
- new analytical tools for chemical analysis

Anyone interested in presenting a paper at the 2001 International Symposium on Wood and Pulping Chemistry should submit an abstract of approximately 250 words, no later than June 30, 2000 to :
