S Supporting Information

All authors retract this article on the basis that the reported synthesis of antimonene is not adequately supported by atomic force microscopy (AFM) data. The AFM data presented in the manuscript does not match the raw data. The article was first published on October 11, 2016 as a Just Accepted manuscript and was retracted on February 27, 2017. The PDF content of the original article accompanies this Retraction as Supporting Information.
