

Rutgers Is Scene This Month For Short Course

RUTGERS University is the scene during mid-July for the fourth short course to be conducted by the American Oil Chemists' Society. Opening with a mixer on the evening of July 6, the course runs for one week, closing on Friday the 11th, under the direction of Foster Dee Snell as chairman for the Society and Dean M. A. Chaffee, of the Extension division of the university at New Brunswick, N. J. Theme for the week is soaps and synthetic detergents. Lectures are to be held each morning, plant trips each afternoon save Wednesday, and evening lectures each day except Friday. Fee for the week is $90 ($50 for room and board, $40 for registration).

V. J. Muckerheide

Names of students who have been accepted since the June issue went to press are as follows:

- C. R. Blumenstein, Seydel-Wooley and Company, Atlanta, Ga.
 Henry G. Vogl, S. C. Johnson and Son Inc., Racine, Wis.
 Kendrick R. Eilar, General Mills Inc., Minneapolis, Minn.
 G. P. Davidson, Lever Brothers Company, Leonia, N. J.
 Harry H. Parker, Armour and Company, Chicago, Ill.
 Martin J. Rubin, H. M. Rubin Company, Long Island City, N. Y.
 Paul Manonchio, E. F. Drew and Company, Boonton, N. J.
 J. E. Singley, Tennessee Corporation, College Park, Ga.
 Herman K. Mohr, Franklin-Baker Division, General Foods, Hoboken, N. J.
 R. Herrlinger, American Cyanamid Company, Linden, N. J.
 M. A. Partridge, Canada Packers Ltd., Toronto, Ontario
 Nicholas De George, Hateo Chemical Company, Harrison, N. J.
 C. E. McMichael, Girdler Corporation, Louisville, Ky.
 F. C. Beardsley, Packers Tar Soap, Mystic, Conn.
 H. A. Tetrault, Swift and Company, Chicago, Ill.
 J. V. Wilkerson, Armour and Company, Chicago, Ill.
 Charles A. Brungs, Du Bois Company, Cincinnati, O.
 Thomas E. Lesslie, Monsanto Chemical Company, Nitro, W. Va.
 W. C. Wood, Newport Soap Company, Oakland, Calif.
 Paul Soderdahl, Hart and Harrington, Chicago, Ill.
 E. C. Johnson, Foster Wheeler Corporation, New York City
 L. H. Brachman, Marco Chemical Company, Fort Worth, Tex.
 Alice Kaveny, Association of American Soap and Glycerine Producers, New York City
 Edward A. Gleadall, Scholler Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa.
 Allen W. Smith, Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Mich.
 Leopold Safrin, J. Eavenson and Sons, Philadelphia, Pa.
 E. L. Boley, Armour and Company, Chicago, Ill.
 M. H. Paulson, California Research Corporation, Richmond, Calif.
 Morris Levine, Universal Detergent Company, Long Beach, Calif.
 H. T. Spannuh, Wilson and Company, Chicago, Ill.
 Arnold E. Wage, Rochester Germicide Company, Rochester, N. Y.
 Joel Brownstein, Hysan Products Company, Chicago, Ill.
 Sidney L. Singer, Falk and Company, Pittsburgh, Pa.
 Philip Christman, Minnesota Chemical Company, St. Paul, Minn.
 A. G. Bowers, Gerson-Stewart Corporation, Cleveland, O.
 Richard R. Egan, Gerson-Stewart Corporation, Cleveland, O.
 A. A. Harban, Standard Oil Company, Whiting, Ind.

The first short course of the Society was held in 1948 at the University of Illinois on the subject of vegetable oils. This was followed by a course on edible oils in 1949, also at Illinois. The third course was given on drying oils at the University of Minnesota in 1950. Lectures for the 1949 and 1950 courses, in bound form, are available from the Society office in Chicago, for $2 and $3, respectively. These were published originally in the Journal.

Papers given at the 1952 short course will also be published in the Journal, some time this fall probably as a supplement to an issue. The plan is to make them available later in bound reprint form.

Cenco scholarships offered annually for graduate study in the physical sciences by the Central Scientific Company, Chicago, have been awarded for the academic year 1952-53. The $1,000 scholarship was won by Albert J. Rothman, who is studying for his Ph.D. degree under the supervision of Prof. LeRoy A. Bromley, Department of Chemistry, University of California, Berkeley. The $1,500 scholarship was awarded to William F. Miller, studying for the Ph.D. degree at Purdue University under direction of Prof. Robert L. Platzman, Department of Physics.

William Ward, a native Chicagoan, has joined Beckman Instruments Inc., South Pasadena, Calif., as research-staff specialist in infrared instrument design. Beckman produces an unusually wide selection of infrared equipment, including the Beckman IR-3 Spectrophotometer, as well as the Beckman IR-2 and IR-2T infrared instruments to meet various analytical needs.

LOOK FOR THIS MARK

It will appear only on laboratory apparatus
of
proven excellence from

CHICAGO APPARATUS COMPANY

Chicago 22, Illinois

ESTABLISHED 1908