

A.O.C.S. Fall Meeting

Plans for the entertainment of the ladies attending the 35th Annual Fall Meeting of the American Oil Chemists' Society in Chicago on Oct. 30 to Nov. 1, 1961, are already well under way. Mary Harmeson has appointed to her committee Cicilia Gilmore and Meses. A.A. Rodeghier, A.F. Kapecki, W.R. Prosch, and D.V. Stingley, and held the first meeting at National Headquarters on July 10th.

The ladies who attend the Fall Meeting can be assured that, with this group planning the arrangements for them, they will have a pleasant and interesting visit to Chicago.

Short Course a Success

The 1961 Short Course on newer lipid analyses, with Raymond Reiser as program chairman, at the University of Rochester July 24-26, attracted a fine attendance and offered an exciting program. Proceedings will be published in the October and November issues of the Journal of the American Oil Chemists' Society, and by the end of the year bound reprints will be available for $4 a copy from the Society office at 35 E. Wacker Drive, Chicago 1, Ill.

Technical Safety Committee Meeting

The A.O.C.S. Technical Safety Committee meeting, held in St. Louis, May 2, with Paul R. Sheffer, chairman, was well attended. A wide range of problems within the scope of this committee was discussed. The following plant safety subjects were recommended for further study:

1. General Safety—Accident and fire prevention in the plant laboratory.
2. Development of safe practices related to the handling of corrosive liquids and other chemicals that present health or accident hazards to plant employees.
3. Formulation of a minimum set of safety rules for operation of solvent extraction plants.
4. Recommended purging procedures to be used in purging solvent equipment.
5. Quicker and more reliable oil flash test procedure rather than closed cup test method for plant production use.
6. A more reliable continuous hexane detector on finished meal production.
7. Residual solvent in meal and oil.
