

• Names in the News

A. F. Kapecki

A. F. KAPECKI, AOCS treasurer, is in Madras, India, visiting the recently installed Wurster & Sanger-built plant in that city. The new plant encompasses fat-splitting, glycerine evaporation, and glycerine distillation. Mr. Kapecki will spend part of the visit training key personnel in operational methods.

He will also visit other Wurster & Sanger installations in India, including one in Bombay. When he returns, he has promised to prepare an interesting report for JAOCS readers.

A. I. TELLER, Dean of the School of Engineering and Science at The Cooper Union, has been elected to the Board of Directors of Fine Organics, Inc., of Lodi, N. J. Teller has served as a consultant to both industry and government on pollution control and mass transfer problems.

J. R. RYBERG (1961) has been named assistant sales manager for the Glidden Company's Durkee Foods Industrial Division in Berkeley, California. Ryberg is a member of the IFT, AACC and AOCS.

E. A. DAY (1959), Vice-President of Research and Development at IFT, has announced the appointment of ANNE SANDERSON to the Flavor Research Division. Miss Sanderson received her Higher National Certificate in Chemistry from Cambridge College of Arts and Technology in 1963 and an M.S. in Food Science from Michigan State University in 1966.

J. G. SOLARI has been elected president and chief executive officer of the Great Lakes Carbon Corporation, New York. Solari succeeds the late GEORGE SKAKEL, JR., who died last September in a plane crash near Riggins, Idaho.

R. F. BROWN (1944) was elected Vice-President of Emery Industries, Inc., at the regular meeting of the board of directors. He will continue as general manager of the Organic Chemicals division. At the same meeting, L. H. LANMAN was elected secretary of the company. He will continue as legal and patent counsel for Emery. CHARLES EADES, manager of taxes and insurance, was appointed assistant secretary.

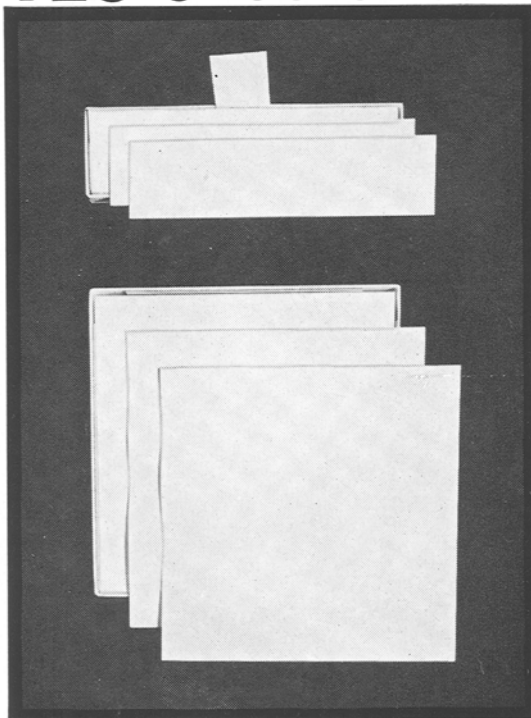

C. F. HANDRAHAN has joined the Memphis, Tenn., sales staff of Bronoco Solvents & Chemicals Company, a division of Ashland Oil and Refining Company. Several new products, including resins, containers, and tall oils, are being added to the list of materials sold through the Memphis office.

F. S. BARTHOLOMEW is now a member of the staff of American Mineral Spirits Company, a division of Union Oil Company of California. He will represent AMSCO in the Chicago area and report to C. P. McCLURE, north central states area manager.

R. A. DREHER is now product marketing manager for dealer products and gas chromatography equipment manufactured by the Instruments Division of Warner-Chilcott Laboratories, Richmond, Calif. He will be responsible for the marketing of chromatographic and clinical instruments as well as new related products.

E. J. LAUX is the new advertising and promotion manager of H. Reeve Angel & Co., of Clifton, N. J. Laux will be responsible for the advertising and promotion of all Whatman filtration, chromatography, and electrophoresis products, and Reeve Angel filter papers. He will report to Vice-President W. P. CATLIN, JR.

Now— charring techniques with pre-coated TLC sheets!

FOR THE FIRST TIME flexible precoated TLC sheets: that may be used for charring techniques at temperatures up to 120°C. ■ that have a binder resistant to sulfuric acid ■ that have a higher capacity. The 0.2 mm. layer is twice as thick as all other previously available sheets.

In addition to the new silica gel layers, both aluminum oxide and cellulose powder are now available as Polygram sheets.

Each sheet can be cut to any desired size or shape with scissors, and all materials are offered in 20x20 and 5x20 cm. sizes.

For complete up-to-date information, request our New Data File on Pre-Coated Systems for TLC.

BRINKMANN INSTRUMENTS

CANTIAGUE ROAD, WESTBURY, N. Y. 11590/ED 4-7500