

Singer Catherine McKinnon holds her audience with a rendition of one of the songs that have made her the largest selling female recording artist in Canada. McKinnon, along with actor Donald Harron, entertained at the Tuesday evening banquet.

Members of the Education Committee—J.G. Endres, E.G. Perkins and J. Lyon—discuss the budget for the 1973 AOCs Conference on Analysis of Lipids and Lipoproteins. This conference, chaired by Perkins, will be held June 17-21 at the Ramada Inn in Champaign, Ill.

Ottawa meeting draws more than 600 persons

The presentation of the Award in Lipid Chemistry has been a highlight of every fall meeting since 1964. Here, AOCs President R.T. O'Connor has presented the plaque signifying the award to A.T. James of Unilever Research. On the right is Arthur Rose of Applied Science Laboratories, the organization that sponsors the $2500 honorarium carried with the award. For a biography of James, see JAOCs 49:426A(1972).

Seven students were selected to receive Honored Student Awards at the AOCS 46th Annual Fall Meeting. Pictured are: President O'Connor, D.H. Beach, M.G. Mackey, D. Min, R.L. Richards, D.G. Richardson, K. Sabharwal and Honored Student Award Committee Chairman R.T. Holman. Not pictured is W.R. Snyder. For details on the courses of study being pursued by these students, see JAOCS 49:428A(1972).

Participants in the program for AOCS spouses lunch in the presence of models sporting precious furs, part of a fashion show provided by the Hudson Bay Co.

Additional photographs of the Ottawa meeting
appear on the following page.

The Bond Award was established in 1958 and is given in honor of the best-presented paper at each of the national meetings. Pictured are R.G. Krishnamurthy, chairman of the Bond Award Committee; E.G. Perkins, who won honorable mention for his paper, "Gas Chromatography-Mass Spectrometry of Cyclic Fatty Acid Esters"; President O'Connor; and Arthur A. Spector, winner of the gold medal for his presentation of "Lipoproteins of Ehrlich Ascites Tumor Plasma." C.R. Scholfield received honorable mention for the presentation of "Hydrogenation of cis-9,cis-12,cis-9,trans-12- and trans-9,trans-12-Octadecadienoates," and Douglas Brenneman and Janice M. Soboroff earned certificates as coauthors of the gold medal paper.

Seated at the head table at Tuesday's banquet were: Mr. and Mrs. Neil Tattrie, Mr. and Mrs. R.P.A. Sims, J.G. Endres, Mr. and Mrs. R.T. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. F.A. Norris, R.T. Holman and Mr. and Mrs. James Lyon.

A balanced mix of committee meetings, technical sessions and entertainment spark lively fall meeting at Ottawa

Karl Zilch, in a meeting of the Publications Committee, displays the current cover of JAACS. The Society is presently considering a change in cover design.

Members of the Society Improvement Committee are pictured from left to right: G. Cavanagh, F. Norris, T. Applewhite, R. Hlavacek and L. Crauer.