

AOCS Smalley Committee Awards: 1972-73

As a result of the Smalley Check Sample Program, AOCS has again presented a member of honors for excellence in collaborative analytical work.

The Smalley Cup has been awarded to James P. Minyard, Jr., Mississippi State Chemist, State College, Miss., for highest standing in collaborative analytical work on oilseed meal samples for the combined determinations of moisture, oil and nitrogen during the 1972-73 season.

Robert H. Beeler, Texas Testing Laboratories, Inc., Lubbock, Tex., has received the Barrow-Agee Cup for highest standing in collaborative analytical work on cottonseed samples during 1972-73. The procedures tested are those used in the determination of the USDA Official Cottonseed Grade.

Certificates of Proficiency have been presented to the two cup winners, and to the following individuals in the categories designated.

1. Oilseed Meals (15 samples)

a) Moisture Determination

Highest Standing:

Diane J. Fomby, Southern Testing Laboratories, Inc., New Orleans, La.

Second Highest Standing:

Ronnie M. Fox, Texas Testing Laboratories, Inc., Dallas, Tex.

Honorable Mention:

Robert H. Hein, Dawson Mills, Dawson, Minn.
Horace J. Keith, Paymaster Oil Mill, Lubbock, Tex.

Millegge A. Clark, Hartsville Oil Mill, Hartsville, S.C.

Paul C. Thionville, Thionville Laboratories, Inc., New Orleans, La.

b) Oil Determination

Highest Standing:

E.R. Jackson, Mississippi State Chemical Laboratory, State College, Miss.

Second Highest Standing:

Horace J. Keith, Paymaster Oil Mill, Lubbock, Tex.

Honorable Mention:

George G. Dickinson, Dickinson Laboratories, Inc., El Paso, Tex.

Thomas J. Moore, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, North Little Rock, Ark.

R.C. Pope, Pope Testing Laboratories, Dallas, Tex.

John R. Ledin, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, Des Moines, Iowa

c) Nitrogen Determination

Highest Standing:

Gladden M. Brooks, Mississippi State Chemical Laboratory, State College, Miss.

Second Highest Standing:

Ronnie M. Fox, Texas Testing Laboratories, Inc., Dallas, Tex.

Honorable Mention:

Edward R. Hahn, Hahn Laboratories, Columbia, S.C.

Lela I. Vines, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, Wilson, Ark.

James E. Williams, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, Clarksdale, Miss.

John H. Lynch, Law & Co., Atlanta, Ga.

d) Crude Fiber Determination

Highest Standing:

Lewis L. Branscomb, Gold Kist Peanut Growers, Graceville, Fla.

Second Highest Standing:

William H. Jennings, Jennings Laboratories, Virginia Beach, Va.

Honorable Mention:

James E. Williams, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, Clarksdale, Miss.

Ronnie M. Fox, Texas Testing Laboratories,

R. Marcuse

Marcuse, Wolff accept Chevreul Medals

The Association Francaise pour l'Etude des Corps Gras (French Association for the Study of Fats and Oils) has awarded Chevreul Medals to Reinhard Marcuse, leader at the Swedish Institute for Food Preservation, Göteborg, Sweden, and Jean-Pierre Wolff, director of the Ecole Supérieure d'Application des Corps Gras and also of Laboratoires Wolff. Marcuse was recognized for his contribution to research on the autoxidation of lipids and Wolff for his competence in the field of fats and oils analysis.

The official presentation, by Association President François Pouillaude, was held November 22, 1972, during a half-day symposium on analytical methods and autoxidation of fats. Both Marcuse and Wolff lectured at the symposium, after which papers were presented on related topics.

The February issue of Revue Francaise des Corps Gras contains the text of Wolff's lecture, as well as a full report of the day's activities, in which more than 100 scientists participated. Marcuse's lecture has been published in May RFCG.

For more information on the career of Reinhard Marcuse, who is an active AOCS member, see JAOCS 50:230A (1973). ■

J.-P. Wolff

F. Pouillaude

- Dallas, Tex.
 Carl W. Schulze, New Jersey Feed Laboratory,
 Inc., Trenton, N.J.
 Edward R. Hahn, Hahn Laboratories, Columbia, S.C.
- e) Combined Determination of Moisture, Oil and Nitrogen
 Highest Standing:
 James P. Minyard, Jr., State Chemist, State College, Miss.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Ronnie M. Fox, Texas Testing Laboratories,
 Inc., Dallas, Tex.
 Honorable Mention:
 Horace J. Keith, Paymaster Oil Mill, Lubbock,
 Tex.
 Thomas J. Moore, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, Inc., North Little Rock, Ark.
 Edward R. Hahn, Hahn Laboratories, Columbia, S.C.
 John R. Ledin, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories,
 Des Moines, Iowa
2. Cottonseed (Official Cottonseed Grading) (10 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Robert H. Beeler, Texas Testing Laboratories,
 Lubbock, Tex.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Vera Pierce, Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, Lubbock,
 Tex.
3. Peanuts (7 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 William C. Dean, Dothan Oil Mill, Dothan, Ala.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Edward R. Hahn, Hahn Laboratories, Columbia,
 S.C.
4. Soybeans (10 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Robert H. Hein, Dawson Mills, Inc., Dawson,
 Minn.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Biffle Owen, Planters Manufacturing Co., Clarks-dale, Miss.
 Honorable Mention:
 John H. Lynch, Law & Co., Atlanta, Ga.
 Thomas J. Moore, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories,
 Inc., North Little Rock, Ark.
5. Safflower (7 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 J.E. Allan, Pacific Safflower Pty., Ltd., Gladesville,
 NSW, Australia
 Second Highest Standing:
 C.A. Lathrop, Curtis & Tompkins, Ltd., San Francisco, Calif.
6. Copra (4 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Peter Wiertz, Vereidigte Handelschemiker, Hamburg, Germany
 Second Highest Standing:
 Nippon Yuryo Kentei Kyokai, Kobe, Japan
7. Cellulose (10 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Edward R. Hahn, Hahn Laboratories, Columbia,
 S.C.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Donald J. Dowling, Jr., Buckeye Cellulose Corp.,
- Memphis, Tenn.
8. Cottonseed Oil (4 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Donald E. Britton, Barrow-Agee Laboratories,
 Memphis, Tenn.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Lynn Hawkins, Jr., Tenent & Associates Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn.
 Honorable Mention:
 Linton G. Lanier, Jr., Hunt-Wesson Foods, Inc.,
 Savannah, Ga.
 George G. Dickinson, Dickinson Laboratories,
 Inc., El Paso, Tex.
 Cletus J. Brown, Hunt-Wesson Foods, Inc., Gretna,
 La.
9. Soybean Oil (4 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 B.E. Clark, Procter & Gamble Manufacturing Co.,
 Long Beach, Calif.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Lynn Hawkins, Jr., Tenent & Associates Laboratories, Memphis, Tenn.
 Honorable Mention:
 William J. Howard, Jr., Humko Products, Champaign, Ill.
 Donald E. Britton, Barrow-Agee Laboratories,
 Memphis, Tenn.
 Michael L. Valleta, Superintendence Co., Inc.,
 New York, N.Y.
 L. Dave McClung, CPC International, San Francisco, Calif.
 John W. Thomas, Superintendence Co., Inc., New Orleans, La.
 Frederick D. Newcomb, Lever Brothers Co., E.
 Los Angeles, Calif.
10. Tallow and Grease (5 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 James G. Laird, Canada Packers, Ltd., St. Boniface, Man., Canada
 Second Highest Standing:
 Koji Hayashibe, Nippon Yuryo Kentei Kyokai,
 Yokohama, Japan
 Honorable Mention:
 Willis L. Price, Lever Brothers Co., Baltimore, Md.
 Richard W. Martin, Charles V. Bacon Laboratories,
 Inc., Jersey City, N.J.
 Nippon Yuryo Kentei Kyokai, Kobe, Japan
 Albert M. Reynaud, Charles V. Bacon Laboratories, Inc., Marrero, La.
 John R. Ledin, Woodson-Tenent Laboratories, Des Moines, Iowa
 Edward R. Hahn, Hahn Laboratories, Columbia,
 S.C.
11. Drying Oils (6 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Edwin C. Gallagher, NL Industries, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.
 Second Highest Standing:
 Richard W. Martin, Charles V. Bacon Laboratories,
 Inc., Jersey City, N.J.
12. NIOP Fats and Oils (5 samples)
 Highest Standing:
 Albert Reynaud, Charles V. Bacon, Inc., Marrero,
 La.
 Second Highest Standing:
 John W. Thomas, Superintendence Co., Inc., Houston, Tex. ■