

AOCS ANNUAL MEETING

MAY 14-18, 1978

ST. LOUIS , MO

CHASE PARK PLAZA HOTEL

The 69th Annual Meeting of the American Oil Chemists' Society is to be held at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel in St. Louis, MO, May 14-18, 1978. General Chairman for the meeting is Robert M. Burton; Technical Program Chairmen are Raymond L. Liss and Harold J. Nicholas.

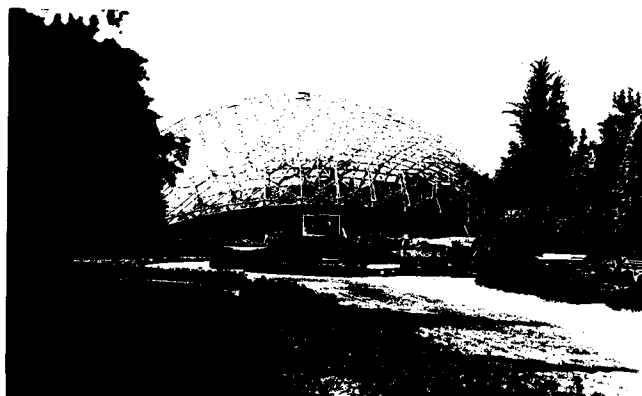

The program being planned for the St. Louis meeting will emphasize the multiple facets of the Society. Symposia are presently being organized on various topics dealing with fats and oils as well as biochemistry. Two nationally-known leaders of government and industry will deliver plenary lectures. Dr. Theodore Cooper, former Assistant Secretary of HEW for Health, will address himself to a topic dealing with the biomedical field, while Dr. Clifford M. Hardin, Vice-Chairman of the Board of Ralston Purina Company, St. Louis, and a former Secretary of Agriculture, will discuss a subject in the general area of nutrition and food science. Watch for further details of the meeting in future issues of JAOCs. Make your plans early to attend and enjoy the sights and sounds of the city known as the Gateway to the West!

MCDONNELL PLANETARIUM

High atop a grassy knoll in Forest Park is the saucer shaped structure of McDonnell Planetarium, which features a variety of astronomical exhibits as well as regular shows in the Star Chamber.

CLIMATRON—MISSOURI BOTANICAL (SHAW'S) GARDEN

The Climatron is a geodesic-domed greenhouse that houses four distinct climates ranging from a tropical rain forest to an arid Moroccan desert. A fish pond with an aqua-tunnel allows an intimate view of the silent and mysterious underwater world. The Climatron is just one of a multitude of attractions at the Missouri Botanical Garden located in a pleasant, tree-lined residential area of south St. Louis.

SIX FLAGS SCREAMIN' EAGLE

The Screamin' Eagle, world's longest, tallest and fastest roller coaster, thrills the passengers at Six Flags Over Mid-America. The family entertainment center also features over 80 different rides and attractions.

THE PLAZA

A pleasant oasis in the heart of downtown St. Louis, Kiener Plaza is a favorite spot. Gracing the fountain is the bronze sculpture, "The Runner," by noted artist William Zorach. In the background is the Old Courthouse and the Gateway Arch.
