If you've got questions about antioxidants, Eastman's got the answer.

Eastman Tenox® TBHQ antioxidant

These days, almost everybody's re-evaluating antioxidants. And Eastman, with more than forty years experience in this field, can help. Eastman Tenox TBHQ is an exceptionally effective food grade antioxidant.

Because it adds no discernible odor or flavor to various oils, fats, or foods. And because it shows no discoloration in the presence of iron, has good oil solubility, and is available in formulated solutions.

Tenox TBHQ is one of the most thoroughly tested food additives we know of. Studies included tests for mutagenicity, teratogenicity and liver microsomal enzyme effects.

So, if you've got questions about antioxidants, or you're considering reformulating, ask Eastman. Our years of experience, our helpful technical facilities, and our strong standards of product excellence will tell you: We've got the answer.
