

---

---

President's Club Reception

---

---

Two drawings were held during the President's Club reception Monday evening. Winners of $100 savings bonds in a drawing that included all President's Club members were Henry Melenkevitz of PVO International Inc. and Timothy Mounts of the USDA's Northern Regional Research Center. Winners of door prizes in a drawing only for those members who attended the reception were: Alicia Sanchez of Carnation Co., a pen set; Vig Babayan of Stokely Van Camp, a clock radio; and Michael Abar, of Emery Industries, a camera. ●

Erl Lowery and Frank Naughton talk during President's Club reception.

Some key organizers of the World Conference on Soaps and Detergents were reunited in St. Louis; from left, Karl Zilch, Francine Gehri, Jim Lyon, Dolores Zilch, and Kurt Gehri.

---

---

The short course on applications of HPLC that followed the national meeting attracted approximately 45 registrants. Dr. E.G. Perkins, short course chairman, said the event was a success with registrants making good use of the opportunity to operate HPLC units displayed by seven equipment manufacturers. ●

Harriet Applewhite, left, draws winning number for President's Club prizes as Tom Applewhite, left, and Jim Lyon watch.

Tim Mounts breaks into grin upon hearing he's won a $100 savings bond in President's Club drawing.

---

---

Honored Student David Luippold parleyed his attendance into a job. Asked by one firm's top staff what he wanted to do after graduation, Luippold drafted a one-page summary of his interests and found himself with a firm job offer. ●

The AOCs Placement Center had 39 postings of available jobs while 43 job-seekers registered. Several interviews were arranged in the center, but more were scheduled independently after the center helped employers obtain names of potential applicants. ●