Staff changes announced

Dana Finney has been named staff editor for JAOCS and Lipids in the Champaign office, replacing Tony Fitzpatrick, who resigned.

As staff editor, Finney is responsible for preparing technical articles for publication and for copyediting of JAOCS news material. She previously had been assistant to the news editor. Ms. Finney has a B.A. in scientific writing from the University of Illinois.

Kathy McDowell is the new assistant to the news editor. She is a Phi Beta Kappa journalism graduate of the University of Nebraska. She will be writing news and feature articles for JAOCS.

Also relatively new to the AOCs staff is Joyce Tikalsky, production manager. She supervises the production department and prepares camera-ready pages of JAOCS and Lipids for printing. She formerly was a technical editor and coordinator of publications for the Illinois State Geological Survey. □
