

International directory of fats and oils organizations

Widespread interest in a reference directory of fats and oils organizations has led to the compilation of this directory in hopes of promoting and facilitating communications between professionals in all aspects of the oil chemistry field.

The guide encompasses a wide spectrum of organizations, including academic institutions, specialized research institutes, trade federations, and profit and nonprofit organizations having regional, national or international scope. Initial lists were compiled from a variety of sources, including AOCS membership lists, commercial directories and conference records. These were subsequently revised and supplemented by many persons whose contributions are acknowledged with thanks.

The questionnaire used (reproduced at the end of the directory) was returned by about 250 organizations. More complete information is available on these organizations than on those from which no response was received, which are recognizable in the directory by the absence of any information except name and address.

Organizations were asked to identify the degree of their interest in each of eight categories by using Arabic numerals. The eight categories are listed below, together with the letter-symbol used in the directory for each category.

The directory will be revised in future years. Readers are encouraged to submit names and addresses of organizations they think should be listed, or to ask those organizations to complete the blank questionnaire at the end of the directory and mail it to: AOCS International Directory, AOCS, 508 S. Sixth St., Champaign, IL 61820 USA. Corrections should be mailed to the same address.

A limited number of single copies are available from AOCS.

AOCS would like to thank all who have helped compile the information. Suggestions as to how to improve the directory would be welcomed.
