

CESIO congress in 1984

"Surfactants in Our World Today and Tomorrow" is the theme for a world surfactant congress scheduled for May 6-10, 1984, in Munich, organized by TEGEWA (Verband der Textilhilfsmittel- Lederhilfsmittel- Gerbstoff- und Waschrrohstoff- Industrie e.v.) and under the sponsorship of CESIO (European Committee of Organic Surfactants and their Intermediates).

The five session topics will cover economic, raw materials, chemistry and physics, applications, and the environment. CESIO estimates U.S. and European surfactant business as representing a $2 billion industry. Surfactants are used in production of household detergents and cleaners, as well as cosmetics, metal working, agriculture and other industries.

An exposition will be held in conjunction with the meeting.

Persons seeking further information should write to John Weekers, chairman; CESIO, avenue Louise 250, Bte. 102; B-1050 Brussels, Belgium.
