MEET THE NEW EDITOR

H. KARL FRENSDORFF

Dr. H. Karl Frensdorff has assumed the editorship of the Journal of Macromolecular Science – Chemistry. He has broad polymer and editorial experience, having spent 32 years in polymer research at the Du Pont Company, most of it in the Elastomer Chemicals and Polymer Products Departments at the Experimental Station in Wilmington, Delaware.

Among his related activities is a long association with the Gordon Research Conferences. He served as chairman of the Elastomer Gordon Conference in 1972.

From 1971 to 1984 he was an Associate Editor of "Rubber Chemistry and Technology", the journal of the Rubber Division of the American Chemical Society, serving as the Editor from 1974 to 1977.

It is his aim to insure a steady rise in the scientific standards of the Journal of Macromolecular Science – Chemistry and to streamline operations to insure prompt publication of contributions.
