

Publisher's announcement

We are pleased to announced that Professor M. Kumada has agreed to become Regional Editor of the Journal of Organometallic Chemistry for Japan. He will also deal with papers from China.

Authors from these areas are therefore requested to send their papers direct to

Professor M. Kumada
Department of Synthetic Chemistry
Faculty of Engineering
Kyoto University
KYOTO 606
Japan

We are delighted that the journal's bonds with Japan are hereby strengthened, and wish Professor Kumada all success in this new and challenging development.
