

Curriculum Vitae of George C. Schatz

Personal Data

Born, April 14, 1949 (Watertown, NY)
 Married, three sons

Education and Employment

Clarkson University (Potsdam, NY)	B.S. in Chemistry (June, 1971)
California Institute of Technology (Pasadena, CA)	Ph.D. in Chemistry (1976), Advisor—Aron Kuppermann
Massachusetts Institute of Technology (Cambridge, MA)	Research Associate (Oct 1975 to Aug 1976) with John Ross (now retired from Stanford)
Northwestern University (Evanston, IL)	Assistant Professor (1976–80)
	Associate Professor (1980–2)
	Professor (1982–present)
	Dow Professor (1994–6)
	Charles E. and Emma H. Morrison Professor (2002–present)

Awards and Fellowships

National Science Foundation Fellowship, Caltech	1971–4
Herbert Newby McCoy Award, Caltech	1975
Alfred P. Sloan Research Fellow	1980–2
Camille and Henry Dreyfus Teacher-Scholar	1981–6
Fresenius Award (of Phi Lambda Upsilon)	1983
Japan Society for Promotion of Science Fellowship	1986
Fellow, American Physical Society	1987
Visiting Fellow, Joint Institute for Laboratory Astrophysics, University of Colorado	1988–9
Max Planck Research Award	1993
Fellow, AAAS	1999
Elected to the International Academy of Quantum Molecular Sciences	2001
Elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences	2002
Elected to the National Academy of Sciences	2005
Professeur “invite classe exceptionnelle”, University Pierre et Marie Curie, Paris	2007
Bourke Medal of the Faraday Division of the Royal Society of Chemistry	2007
Ver Steeg Distinguished Research Fellow, Northwestern University	2008–13
Feynman Prize of the Foresight Institute	2008

Professional Positions

Argonne National Laboratory	Visiting Scientist (1986–2004)
The Journal of Physical Chemistry	Senior Editor (1993–2004)
	Editor-in-Chief (2005–present)

JP901790D