

ANNOUNCEMENT

1. ASME AWARDS FOR 1999: CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Technical Committee for Vibration and Sound of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers solicits nominations for the following awards.

J. P. den Hartog Award. Established in 1987 this award recognizes a lifetime of contributions to the teaching and practice of vibration engineering. The previous winners of this award are W. T. Thompson (1989), S. H. Crandall (1991), R. E. D. Bishop (1993), T. K. Caughey (1995), and A. H. Nayfeh (1997).

N. O. Myklestad Award. Established in 1989 this award recognizes a major innovative contribution to vibration engineering. The previous winners of this award are T. C. Huang (1993), C. S. Hsu (1995), and D. E. Bently (1997).

Persons interested in making a nomination should send supporting material consisting of a letter of nomination, the nominee's curriculum vitae, and 3–5 letters seconding the nomination to Professor S. Sinha, Chairman of TCVS, Department of Mechanical Engineering, Auburn University, Auburn, AL 36849-5341; telephone +1 (334) 844-3325; fax +1 (334) 844-3307; E-mail ssinha@eng.auburn.edu. The deadline for nominations is 1 January 1999.