This issue of the Journal of Statistical Physics is the second volume of a special issue commemorating fifty years of the semi-annual Yeshiva-Rutgers Statistical Mechanics Conferences, the hundredth of which took place in December 2008. More information about these meetings is contained in the preface in the December 2009 issue of this journal.

See you at the 103rd meeting, May 9–11, 2010.
