GENERAL INFORMATION

Aims and Scope. SULFUR REPORTS is devoted to both short and long reviews covering important research topics in both academic and technological areas of sulfur chemistry. It is intended to provide an international forum for the dissemination of information and ideas from the front line of sulfur research. Single issues will be individually priced so that researchers can select those topics most relevant to their work.

Books for review should be sent directly to the Editor at the address listed below.

Notes for contributors can be found at the back of the journal.

Submission of articles. Authors wishing to submit manuscripts should send either a synopsis or a draft to Alexander Senning, Kemisk Institut, Aarhus Universitet, DK-8000 Aarhus C, Denmark, or to any of the Editorial Board members.

Subscription rates:

Approximately 400 pages per volume

Institutional subscription rate per volume: $175.00 (including postage).

Individual subscription rate per volume: $72.00* (including postage).

University and academic libraries in North America, Western Europe and Australasia receive a 20 percent academic discount from the institutional corporate rate.

*Individual subscription rates are available only to individuals who subscribe directly from the publisher and who pay through personal checks or credit cards.

This price applies in North America only. All other countries will be invoiced at our current conversion rate. The subscription rates include a distribution charge of $17.00 for postage and handling. Please write to the publisher for details. Send your order to your usual supplier or direct to Harwood Academic Publishers GmbH, c/o STBS Ltd., One Bedford Street, London WC2E 9PP, England. Claims for nonreceipt of issues should be made within three months of publication of the issue or they will not be honored without charge. Subscriptions are available for microform editions. Please write for details.

LICENSE TO COPY. The appearance of the code at the top of the first page of an article in this publication indicates the copyright owner's consent that copies of the article may be made for personal or internal use, or for the personal or internal use of specific clients. This consent is given on condition the copier obtains a license directly from the publisher at the address above. Subscribers will be offered a license with each subscription renewal of the publication. The license will not be extended to other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale. Nor does the license extend to any individual or company specifically advised by the publisher in writing that consent is being expressly withheld. It is expressly forbidden to any individual or company to copy any article as agent, either express or implied, of another individual or company.

REPRINTS OF INDIVIDUAL ARTICLES. Copies of individual articles may also be obtained from publisher's own document delivery service, On-Demand Publishing, at appropriate fees.
