

Coming Events

WORKSHOP: STATE OF THE ART IN THERMAL ANALYSIS

The U. S. National Bureau of Standards and The University of Akron are joint sponsors of a two-day workshop to be held May 21–2, 1979. Details may be obtained from the General Chairman, Dr. Oscar Menis, U. S. National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C. 20234.

The topics special emphasis are energy conservation in industrial processes, phase diagram determination, kinetics, high pressure thermal analysis, and industrial particulates in the environment. The Program Chairman is Prof. P. D. Garn, The University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325.