ANNOUNCEMENT

DON JOHNSON RETIRES AS EDITOR

It is with considerable regret that I inform our readership that Dr. Donald Johnson is retiring as my co-editor of the Journal of Wood Chemistry and Technology. Don has been involved with the Journal since he and I developed it in 1980 and published the first issue in 1981. I have immensely enjoyed our association as co-editors and readily acknowledge the fact that working with Don made what could have been a very difficult job much easier and, for the most part, enjoyable. I have also appreciated the professionalism and high standards that Don has continually brought to the Journal. I am sure that all of you join me in thanking Don for his many years of service with the Journal.
