

JUNE 8, 1893.

A meeting of the Board of Directors was held in the laboratory of Professor Doremus at the College of the City of New York, June 8, 1893. Present: Messrs. Breneman, Dodge, Doremus, Hale, Hart, McKenna, McMurtrie, Sabin, and Woodman.

The meeting was called to order at 4.45 P. M., Vice President Sabin in the chair. After some informal discussion regarding the Journal of the society, Professor Hart retired.

The board then adopted unanimously the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Chemical Publishing Company, of Easton, Pa., is hereby authorized to print and distribute the JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY for the year 1893 in 1,000 volumes at $1.80 per volume, each volume to consist of twelve monthly numbers of not less than sixty pages; adjustment being made for the January number, of which only 750 copies were printed; the terms upon which this agreement is made being those which were proposed by the Chemical Publishing Company to the Committee on Papers and Publications of the American Chemical Society, under date 4-17-93.

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the American Chemical Society hereby accept the following propositions made to them this day by Edward Hart: (a) That I suspend the publication of my journal with the June number, and for the rest of the year send to my subscribers the numbers of the JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY instead; the expense of printing, binding, and mailing the additional copies required for this purpose to be defrayed by me. This plan gives my subscribers the society's journal for six months and will doubtless lead to a largely increased membership. (b) That in case the journal of the society shall at any time cease to be published by the Chemical Publishing Company, the American Chemical Society shall then, if I so desire, take all complete volumes of the Journal of Analytical Chemistry and of the Journal of Analytical and Applied Chemistry then in my hands, paying for them at the rate of one dollar ($1) per volume unbound. The total amount paid shall in no event exceed $400. It is also understood that if additional copies of any number shall have been reprinted in the meantime such additional copies shall not be included unless the society so desire.

There being no further business the board then adjourned.

ALBERT C. HALE, Secretary.
