Studies of Color

"Color as Used in Architecture, Design, and Decoration" is the title of a brochure issued by the Inter-Society Color Council as a report of the afternoon session, 19th annual meeting, March 8, 1950, in New York City. The May news-letter, No. 88, mentions the new booklet on spectrophotometry, Circular 484, of the National Bureau of Standards, also the new automatic cotton colorimeter, based on the application in the Cotton Branch, PMA, of the U.S.D.A. of the Hunter Color and Color-Difference Meter.

Foster D. Snell inc. has published a brochure entitled "Determination of Vitamin D in Milk."
