

Short Course Program Is Completed

J. E. McHale

R. W. H. Tess

The final program for the 1959 Short Course on Drying Oils, to be held at the University of Minnesota August 10-14, is announced by D. H. Wheeler, program chairman:

Monday, August 10

General Methods of Analysis of Drying Oils, by W. E. Link, Archer-Daniels-Midland Company, Minneapolis, Minn.

Extraction Methods for Drying Oils, by M. R. Wingard, Davidson-Kennedy Associates, Chicago Heights, Ill.

Refining Methods for Drying Oils, by Morris Mattikow, Refining Uninc., New York

Tuesday, August 11

Synthetic Drying Oils and Vehicles from Unsaturated Acids and Synthetic Polyols, by R. W. H. Tess, Shell Development Company, Emeryville, Calif.

Isocyanate Drying Oils, by James Stanton, Cargill Inc.

Copolymer Drying Oils, by R. F. Helmreich, Dow Chemical Company

Autoxidation and Autoxidative Polymerization, by O. S. Privett, Hormel Institute, Austin, Minn.

Research Methods of Analysis, by H. J. Dutton, Northern Regional Research Laboratory, Peoria, Ill.

Wednesday, August 12

Dehydrated Castor Oil, by D. S. Bolley, Baker Castor Oil Company, Bayonne, N. J.

Tung Oil, by Jack Greenfield, Tung Research and Development League, Lyndhurst, N. J.

The Use of Tall Oil in Alkyds for Trade Sales and Industrial Alkyds, by Victor Larson, Hercules Powder Company

Thursday, August 13

Driers for Drying Oils, by Charles Gardner, Witco Chemical Company

Drying Oil in Varnishes, by A. E. Rheineck, North Dakota Agricultural College, Fargo, N. Dak.

Drying Oils and Acids in Alkyds, by W. M. Kraft, Heyden Newport Chemical Corporation

Drying Oils in Printing Inks, by Raymond Lecture, Interchemical Corporation

Drying Oils in Floor Coverings, by L. H. Dunlap, Armstrong Cork Company, Lancaster, Pa.

Friday, August 14

Deterioration of Drying Oil Films, by Caroline D. Miller, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Chemical Intermediates and Derivatives from Unsaturated Oils and Acids, by Charles G. Goebel, Emery Industries Inc., Cincinnati, O.

The Economics of Drying Oils, by J. E. McHale, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith Inc., Chicago, Ill.

Wednesday afternoon has been left free for plant or laboratory visits in the Twin Cities area.

Day chairmen for the course will be, respectively, Loyd V. Anderson, Minnesota Linseed Oil Paint Company; Max Kantor, Cargill Inc.; W. O. Lundberg, Hormel Institute; A. R. Baldwin, Cargill Inc.; and M. W. Formo, Archer-Daniels-Midland, who is also general chairman of the course, under the direction of the Education Committee of the Society.

Registration for the course has been set at $65, which is payable in advance to the American Oil Chemists' Society at 35 E. Wacker Drive, Chicago 1, Ill. Board and room will be payable to the university, on arrival. Student fee will be $15. A Minnesota tourist kit will be sent to each student with acceptance of registration. Anyone interested may attend.

• New Members

Active

Toshio Agawa, post-doctorate, Department of Chemistry, Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, Ill.

Ralph L. Alley Jr., plant superintendent, C. & T. Refinery Inc., Charlotte, N. C.

Joseph Henry Bragdon, investigator (rank: medical director), National Heart Institute, U. S. Public Health Service, Bethesda, Md.

Charles H. Brunsman Jr., staff engineer, Factory Service, Procter and Gamble, Cincinnati, O.

Agustin Contijoch-Mestres, technical assistant, Barcelona, Spain

Woodrow J. Dickson, laboratory manager, Tretolite Company of California, Los Angeles, Calif.

Richard Hulbert Hoagland, vegetable oil sales, Ralston Purina Company, St. Louis, Mo.

Harold Lomas, research director, E. F. Drew and Company Ltd., Ajax, Ontario, Canada

Roy A. Pritchard, chemist, Division of Corn Products, Best Foods Inc., San Francisco, Calif.

Theodore L. Roth, food technologist, Vitagen Corporation, Los Angeles, Calif.

Noel George Weichman, chief chemist, Marrickville Margarine Pty. Ltd., Nut Food Pty. Ltd., Marrickville, N. S. W., Australia

Individual Associate

Bennette Thomas Shepherd, general superintendent, Planters Cotton Oil Company, Pine Bluff, Ark.

Corporation Associate

Mar-Gold Corporation, Hugh Marshall Worsham, chemist, Atlanta, Ga.

Employment Service File

Available in the national office of the American Oil Chemists' Society is a file on the state employment services which are affiliated with the United States Employment Service. There are 1,800 offices equipped to do recruitment and placement, match qualifications against requirements, counsel job-seekers, and provide labor market information, etc.