

Dallas Barbecue

BISCUITS—At the oven in the motorized chuck-wagon are "Pop" Ellis of Walter Jetton Catering, Fort Worth, Mrs. B. F. Daubert, Mrs. J. D. Porter, and Mrs. J. D. Lindsay in Dallas, April 4.

INSPECTION—Lynne Metcalfe of Riverside, Ill., helps Virgil Cox at Memorial Auditorium.

WAITING—Above are J. E. Healey, C. R. Scholfield, C. G. Youngs, R. L. Lohmar, C. D. Evans, B. F. Ware, J. C. Cowan, and E. T. Roe. Below are Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Struble, Mrs. B. L. Thomas and Lewis Thomas, Mrs. and Mr. T. H. Miller, Mrs. and Mr. A. F. Paustian. Red-checked table-cloths, tin cups, and informality marked this western-style barbecue at the Memorial Auditorium in Dallas, Tex., April 4, 1960. After the meal there was a program of music, dancing, sharp-shooting, and stunts.

SELF-SERVICE—The Russell Walkers of Sherman, Tex., find a pitcher in the corner and help themselves.

