Northeast Section

The Northeast Section held its final meeting of the current year, June 2, at Whyte's Restaurant, New York City. To the credit of the speaker, S. S. Chang (1952), the meeting was well attended, with 75 members and guests present. In Dr. Chang's talk, "Development of Off Flavors in Flavors and Oils," he described the mechanisms of formation of flavor reversion and the techniques for the isolation, fractionation and chemical identification of compounds responsible for the off flavors. He also outlined the current research program being carried out at the Dept. of Food Science, College of Agriculture, The Rutgers University. This was followed by an informative question and answer period.

Section officers for the 1964-1965 term were elected as follows: President, George Raupp; Vice President, Stephan Chang; Secretary, Frank Naughton; Treasurer, August Rossetto; Directors, Philip Ronzoni, James Ransom, Stanley Purcell, M. Kent Smith and Henry Salomon.

North Central Section

Section President Cele Gilmore's enthusiasm resulted in a very productive Governing Board Meeting, June 4 at Chicago's Swedish Club. Several innovations in program format are being evaluated. Among these are pre-dinner sessions, intensely covering the basics of fats and oils chemistry. These short programs would be designed to appeal to those who would like reviews of the more basic aspects, as well as for recent newcomers to the industry.

Larry Rosner, Program Chairman, may be turning over the January meeting to a symposium committee. If an outstanding set of papers can be assembled, this symposium will be set up as a daytime meeting. One assignment to be tackled with vigor by Jean Carden's Arrangements Committee will be to track down facilities for dinner meetings than don't specialize in pot roast.

This year the Bailey Award nomination will be given special attention. President Gilmore plans to contact industry to enable them to participate in this distinguished award.
