

Canada's modern National Arts Centre has become a well known center for the performing arts.

Ladies to tour Ottawa's art galleries

SUNDAY—September 24

Afternoon (3:00-5:00) Afternoon tea in the Burgundy Room of the Chateau Laurier for early registrants. (The Burgundy Room will be the ladies convention headquarters.)

Evening Traditional AOCS Mixer.

MONDAY—September 25

Morning Continental breakfast served in the Drawing Room at the Chateau Laurier. Following the breakfast will be a talk on English China given by a representative of "Birks," Montreal. Free time for Lunch.

Afternoon (1:00) Meet in the Drawing Room for bus tour of the Gatineau Park, Quebec, with tea at Kingsmere. Tom Kines, well known Canadian folksinger, will entertain the ladies at the Teahouse. Return to Ottawa around 4:30 p.m.

Evening Complimentary cocktail party followed by buffet supper, both at the Chateau Laurier.

TUESDAY—September 26

Morning Continental breakfast, followed by a presentation of copper-enameled art work and "Meet the Artist": Enamelist Mrs. Lorraine Emmerson, Ottawa. Talk on Canadian Art by a representative of the National Art Gallery.

12:30 P.M. Lunch at the Chateau Laurier during which a fur fashion show will be presented.

Afternoon Free time for preparation for the annual banquet; local guides for short walking tours

(Continued on page 246A)

H.T. Armstrong, Chairman, Hotels Subcommittee. See May JAOCS for photos of other fall meeting committee chairmen.