AIC lauds achievements of Evald Skau

Evald L. Skau, collaborator with the USDA in New Orleans since his retirement in 1967, received the 1973 Honor Scroll Award of the Louisiana Chapter of the American Institute of Chemists at their Annual Awards Dinner in May. Elias Klein, chairman of the Louisiana Chapter, stated that Skau was being cited "in recognition of his contribution to chemistry through excellence as a scientist and consultant, and his assistance in developing young chemists."

Skau, who has been active in AOCS since 1939, has pursued a highly productive career as a teacher, research leader and consultant that spans more than half a century. He came to the USDA in 1939, helped select the staffs for the four newly established regional research centers and helped plan the research program for the Southern Regional Research Center. He is currently occupied by consulting and writing. ■
