

AOCS Northeast Section 14th Annual Symposium

April 8, 1975
The Robert Treat Hotel
Newark, N.J.

Program

- 8:30-9:00 Registration
- 9:00-9:40 Recent Advances in Derivatization and Chromatographic Separation Materials Nicholas Pelick, president Supelco, Inc., Bellefonte, Pa.
- 9:40-10:10 Coffee
- 10:10-10:50 Biodegradability Screening Tests R. Sturm, Environmental Water Quality Research Department, Procter & Gamble Co., Cincinnati, Ohio
- 10:50-11:30 Thermoanalytical Methods in Fats and Oil Recovery Richard L. Fyans, The Perkin-Elmer Corp., Norwalk, Conn.
- 11:30-12:00 Determination of Fatty Acids' Structure A. Sheppard, Division of Nutrition Food and Drug Administration, Washington, D.C.
- 12:00-1:50 Lunch Recess
Luncheon speaker AOCS President Ralph T. Holman will discuss "Trends in Activities of AOCS" and "The Role of Essential Fatty Acids in Human Nutrition"
- 1:50-2:30 Imported Oils and Their Application in U.S. Fats and Oil Industry (CNO, Palm, PKO, Babassu, Castor Oil) Peter Kalustian, P.E., Kalustian Associates, an expert and leader in the processing of oils and their chemical derivatives in the U.S.
- 2:30-3:10 Geometrical Considerations in the Preparation of Emulsion and Selection of Emulsifiers Kenneth J. Lissant, director of advanced research, Petrolite Corp., a well known lecturer and authority in the field of emulsifiers.
- 3:10-3:50 Method of Selecting Emulsifiers in Nonionic Systems Donald Courtney, senior development chemist, ICI America, author of several patents and publications in the field of emulsifiers as applied in fats, oils, and cosmetic industry.

Glen Jacobson, Campbell Soup Co., and Alex Hsieh, Rutgers University, acted as technical paper cochairmen for this symposium.

Manny Eijadi, chairman

Stan Dominik, cochairman