

NEW ORLEANS

Louisiana

AOCS

67th Annual

Spring Meeting

April 21-24, 1976

Registration area was a popular gathering place.

AOCS staff member Barbara Wiemer ran the Placement center.

AOCS officers pose before the opening plenary session.

President Link calls the meeting to order.

General chairman N. Knoepfler welcomes AOCS to New Orleans.

AOCS honored students after receiving their awards in New Orleans.

C.J.M. Meershoek receives special recognition from W.E. Link for his work as local chairman of the World Conference on Oilseed and Vegetable Oil Technology.

Marrison Whitten and Sam Herb are given one of the highest of AOCS honors—the Award of Merit.

A.R. Shoaf discusses his work at a poster session.

AOCS Local Section Committee discusses regional mini-meetings.

AOCS Membership Committee plans new recruitment campaign.

AOCS delegates arrive at the dock to board the S.S. President for the dinner cruise/dance. Later, the cruise ship found itself escorted by two sister ships, having lost half its power when an engine stopped performing.

Comedian Caliste Herbert spins one of his "Bayou Tales" on the S.S. President.

The ballroom of the S.S. President--the site of the first AOCS dinner cruise/dance.

St. Louis Cathedral was one stop on a busy ladies' schedule tour.

W.T. Coleman and J. Ridlehuber at the Smalley presentation ceremonies.

Retiring president Link receives the past-president's key from R.T. Holman.

Commemorative Medallion

Outgoing AOCs president W.E. Link passing the traditional tomahawk gavel to new president F.B. White.

New president F.B. White addresses the inaugural luncheon crowd.