The deadline for nominations is December 15, 1982, and notification of the selection will appear in this journal. The presentation of the Bailey Award is scheduled for early 1983.

RALPH H. POTTS MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

AOCS is seeking nominations for the Ralph H. Potts Memorial Fellowship Award, sponsored by Armak. The second annual award is to be presented at the 1983 AOCS annual meeting in Chicago. The 1983 recipient should be prepared to deliver a technical paper during the Ralph H. Potts Memorial Symposium that will be part of the Chicago meeting. The award consists of a $1,000 honorarium, a scroll and a travel allowance. A nominee must be a graduate student in a North American university (USA, Canada or Mexico). The type of research that will qualify for the award should involve fatty acids or their derivatives, such as long chain alcohols, amines, and other nitrogen compounds. The research should fall within one of the following categories: synthesis, processing, utilization or characterization. A nomination may be made by any individual; however, it is expected most nominations will be by the student's major professor. The nomination must include: a biographical sketch; a list of patents and publications; specific identification and evaluation of the work on which the nomination is based; the name of the school and the major professor. Nominations and inquiries concerning the award should be directed to:

Ralph H. Potts Memorial
Fellowship Award Committee
AOCS
508 South Sixth Street
Champaign, IL 61820

Five copies of the complete nomination document, including reprints and supplementary material, must reach the award committee at AOCS Headquarters by November 15, 1982.

1983 HONORED STUDENT AWARDS

Nominations are now being solicited for the 1983 AOCS Honored Student Awards. Graduate students at any North American institution of higher learning, in any area of science dealing with fats and lipids, who are doing research toward an advanced degree, and who are interested in the areas of science and technology fostered by this Society, are eligible. To receive the award, he/she must remain registered as a graduate student and must not have received his/her degree or begun career employment prior to the AOCS meeting he/she is to attend. Selection of awardees is based upon educational qualifications and research performance. The awards provide funds equal to travel costs, plus an additional stipend to permit attendance at the AOCS annual meeting to be held in Chicago, May 8-12, 1983. Nomination forms may be obtained from:

American Oil Chemists' Society
508 South Sixth Street
Champaign, IL 61820

The application forms must reach the AOCS Headquarters by October 1, 1982.

Dawson, 1982.

The award consists of $3,000 plus a travel and expense allowance accompanied by an appropriate certificate. It is planned that the 19th award will be presented during the AOCS Annual Meeting in Chicago, May 8-13, 1983.

Canvassing Committee Appointees

Policies and procedures governing the selection of award winners have been set by the AOCS Governing Board. An Award Nomination Canvassing Committee is appointed; the chairman is Evelyn J. Weber. The function of this committee is to solicit nominations for the award. Selection of the winner will be made by the Award Committee, whose membership will remain anonymous.

Rules

A nominee must have been responsible for the accomplishment of outstanding original research on fats, oils, lipid chemistry and biochemistry, and must have presented the results thereof through the publication of technical papers of high quality. Preference shall be given to individuals who are actively associated with research, and who have made discoveries that have influenced his or her field of endeavor. The award shall be made without regard for national origin, race, color, creed or sex.

Nominations should consist of a letter of nomination, supporting letters from at least three other scientists and biographical information concerning the nominee. The biographical information must include a summary of the nominee's research accomplishments, a list of publications, degrees held with the names of the granting institutions, and positions held during the nominee's professional career. Letters of nomination and supporting documents shall be submitted in octuplicate before Nov. 5, 1982, to Evelyn J. Weber, S-320, Turner Hall, University of Illinois, 1102 S. Goodwin St., Urbana, IL 61801 USA.

Deadline: Nov. 5, 1982
