

People

President OTAI

S.C. Singhal has been elected president of the Oil Technologists' Association of India for 1983 and 1984. He is senior manager of the oil processing group for Shriram Foods & Fertiliser Industries in New Delhi. Singhal is also a member of the AOCS and has been active in India's oil processing industry for the past three decades.

Perkins honored

Former AOCS President E.G. Perkins was one of three persons to receive the 1983 Paul A. Funk Recognition Award, presented annually to University of Illinois College of Agriculture faculty members for "outstanding contribution to agriculture through research, teaching, extension education and public service."

Perkins was cited as "an innovator in development of new chromatographic methodology" that has "added greatly to our knowledge of the chemical changes that take place when these products (natural fats and oils) are used in deep-fat frying." He also was cited for work on the Maillard reaction, methods to determine trans-fatty acid content of fats, and the distribution of chlorinated pesticides during the processing of soybean oil. The award consists of a plaque and an honorarium.

White joins realty firm

Former AOCS president Francis B. White, who retired last fall from Foster Wheeler Energy Corporation after 45 years of service, is starting a new career. White has joined the sales staff of Weichert Co. Realtors at its Morristown West office, Morristown, New Jersey.

Holt, Baldwin elected

AOCS member Kenneth E. Holt has been reelected chairman and long-time AOCS member A. Richard Baldwin a director of Experience Incorporated, a worldwide agribusiness consulting company headquartered in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Eugene E. Woolley, formerly an executive vice president of General Mills, was elected vice-chairman.

Obituaries

James P. Hughes, an emeritus member of the American Oil Chemists' Society, died Aug. 18, 1982. Mr. Hughes had retired in 1975 from the USDA Southern Regional Research Center in New Orleans where he was technical assistant to the center director. Prior to joining USDA, Mr. Hughes had been with The Cudahy Packing Company and also with Mrs. Tucker's Foods, the predecessor firm to Aderson Clayton. He was a 1929 graduate of the University of Missouri. Mr. Hughes served on local committees for AOCS national meetings held in New Orleans and had been a member of AOCS since 1943.

Charles Sutter, of Alexandria, Virginia, an emeritus member of the AOCS since 1971, died Dec. 12, 1983. Mr. Sutter was a control chemist with the Colgate Palmolive Peet Co. when he first joined AOCS in 1935.

AOCS has been informed of the May 1982 death of Earl B. Working, of Downey, California, an emeritus member of AOCS who originally joined the Society in 1947. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Denver and his doctorate from the University of Arizona in 1922.

AOCS has been informed of the Dec. 7, 1982, death of John W. Dunning, retired president of Anderson IBEC of Strongsville, Ohio. He received his doctorate in 1938 from Iowa State University and worked with Anderson Clayton Co. prior to World War II. During the war he directed USDA synthetic liquid fuels work and in 1948 returned to private employment with V.D. Anderson & Co., a predecessor of Anderson IBEC. He initially joined AOCS in 1948.

AOCS has been informed of the Jan. 23, 1983, death of Allan K. Smith of Hot Springs Village, Arkansas. Dr. Smith was a graduate of Columbia University. He was a research leader at the Northern Regional Research Center in Peoria, Illinois, prior to his retirement in 1964. Dr. Smith was a consultant after his retirement and edited a book on soybean protein technology. He initially joined AOCS in 1955.

People

AOCS has been informed of the death of Andrea Paleni, a research consultant in Correggio, Italy, who had been a member of the AOCS since 1959. Dr. Paleni was president of his firm, the Societa Italiana Ricerche Agricole & Industriali a R.L.

AOCS has been informed of the December 1982 death of Herman I. Enos Jr., a research associate with Hercules Inc. in Wilmington, Delaware. Dr. Enos had been a member of AOCS since 1964. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Southern California and his doctorate from the University of Illinois in 1946.

AOCS has been informed of the death of Roberto Floriano Kohlmann, a member of the society since 1964. Dr. Kohlmann was affiliated with Sanbra SA in Sao Paulo, Brazil. He received his doctorate in chemistry from the Universidad Nacional in Buenos Aires in 1946.

AOCS has been informed of the August 1982 death of Lim Chin Kuan, director and analytical chemist for the Malayan Testing Laboratory of Penang, Malaysia. He was a graduate of London University, 1950, and University of Malaya, 1951. He initially joined AOCS in 1977.

CERIT WAXES:
MICROCRYSTALLINE
SYNTHETIC PARAFFIN
POLYETHYLENE
SPECIAL WAXES
MICRONIZED
CARNAÜBA

ASK

Ceralit S.A.

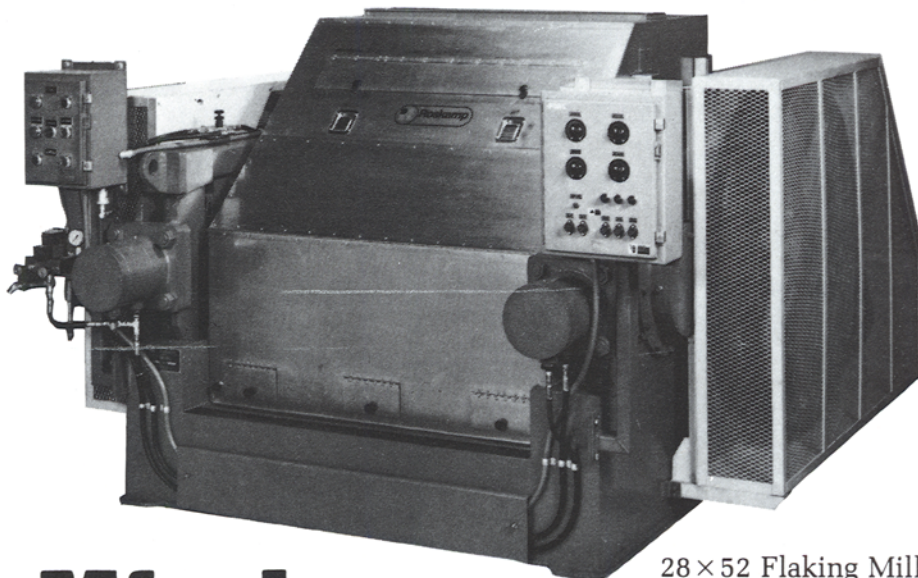

Telex 1121676 / 1125181 CINC BR
P.O. Box 12651 - 04798 SÃO PAULO BRAZIL

The Mark III 28 × 52 Flaking Mill is a result of innovative engineering and a devotion to quality construction and materials. It's designed for accurate, consistent flaking-ease of operation. Strength. Endurance.

Roskamp continues to set the pace with technological advancements in the industry. Features include HTD drive, inter-roll drive with automatic belt tensioner and roll pressure safety interlock.

Investigate the other exclusive features of the Mark III. Call or write for more information.

MARK III

28 × 52 Flaking Mill
270-325 T/D

Roskamp Mfg., Inc.

616 Grand Blvd. Cedar Falls, Iowa 50613

(319) 266-1791