1985 approved chemists

The AOCS Examination Board has certified official chemists working in 53 independent analytical laboratories, based on the 81 chemists' participation in the AOCS Smalley Check Sample Program.

Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in fats and oils and oilseeds analysis, using designated methods on samples distributed through the Smalley program.

Laboratories are listed in alphabetical order. The listing includes the laboratory address and telephone number, the name(s) of the approved chemist(s) at that laboratory, and the categories in which the laboratory chemist(s) received certification.

AOCS certified laboratories

The following laboratories are certified by AOCS for proficiency in using AOCS methods in analysis of soybean meal. The certified laboratory program is a new venture, begun by AOCS with cooperation of the National Soybean Processors Association.

These laboratories enroll in the special program and will be eligible for use as NSPA referee chemists in soy meal analysis.

They are: A & A Laboratories Inc., 100 N. Spring, Springdale, AR 72764; Barrow-Agee Laboratories Inc., 405 Saturn Dr., P.O. Box 156, Memphis, TN 38101; Caleb Brett U.S.A. Northeast sets schedule

The Northeast Section of AOCS has set a schedule of six meetings for its 1985/86 season, beginning with a Tuesday, Sept. 10 dinner meeting at the Ramada Inn in Princeton, New Jersey.

David Kritchevsky of the Wistar Institute in Philadelphia will speak on "Fat, Calories and Cancer." Persons interested in attending should contact Mark Bieber, Best Foods/CPC International, 1120 Commerce Ave., Union, NJ 07083.

Other meeting dates and tentative topics, if available, include: Wednesday, Oct. 2, 1985, Robin Hood Inn, Clifton, New Jersey, a joint meeting with the Cosmetic Chemists Society; Tuesday, Nov. 12, 1985, Forsgate Country Club, with a talk by AOCS President Joyce Beare-Rogers on fats in nutrition; Tuesday, Mar 19, 1986, Robin Hood Inn, Clifton, New Jersey; Tuesday, April 22, 1986, The Binghampton in Edgewater, New Jersey, guest night. The 25th annual all-day symposium will be Tuesday, Feb. 11, 1985, at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey, with a program on computerization in the laboratory and in processing.

Officers for 1985/86 are M. Deborah Meiners, Best Foods/CPC International, president; Mark A. Bieber, Best Foods/CPC International, vice president; Thomas Foglia, USDA Eastern Regional Research Center, secretary; Martin Freeman, Capital City Products, treasurer, and Harry Ford, Harshaw/Filtrol Partnership; Tony Montana, Diamond Shamrock Corp.; Don Fritz, Custom Lab Services, and Michael Blumenthal, Libra Laboratories, serving on the board of directors with the immediate past president of the section, Stephen Greenberg of Lipo Chemical Inc.

South Central topics

The newly formed South Central Section of AOCS has announced six topics to be discussed at future meetings, with specific sites to be decided after the section holds an organizational meeting this fall.

The tentative agenda includes the following:

Processing Equipment and Analytical Instruments, Houston, Texas, Sept. 16;

Biotechnology of Fats and Oils, Austin, Texas, Nov. 4;

Nutritional Implications of Fats in the Food Industry, College Station, Texas, Jan. 13, 1986;

Career Changes and Opportunities in the Fats and Oils Industry, Dallas, Texas, Mar. 10, 1986;

Advances in the Flavors and Fragrances Industry, New Orleans, Louisiana, May 12, 1986, and Surfactants and Detergents, Houston, Texas, date to be announced.

Lisa Lambert is serving as chairperson and Jesse Covey as secretary/treasurer pending election of officers at the organization meeting. Persons who wish to join should send $5 for 1985 membership dues to AOCS, 508 S. Sixth St., Champaign, IL 61820. The section's primary geographical area will be Texas and adjoining states, but anyone may join.

Lela Vines retires

You won't find Lela Vines' name in this year's list of AOCS' certified chemists. She's retired.

Mrs. Vines, of Woodson-Tenent Labs in Gainesville, Georgia, became the first woman to win the Smalley Award for oilseed meal analysis when she received the award during the 1985 AOCS Annual Meeting in Philadelphia.

She had been a referee chemist since 1972.

Working in an independent lab can be hectic. "I can remember when she would be working 16 hours a day," her husband, George, said in Philadelphia. The family includes four sons. Mrs. Vines received 25 certificates in the Smalley program during 28 years' participation.

Attending the meeting in Philadelphia to receive the Smalley Award was one of her last official duties before retirement. And retirement means moving to Alabama for fishing, gardening and some travel.
