MAILING:

Our mailing list for Liquid Crystals Today is much larger than the ILCS membership, and our major cost for Liquid Crystals Today is mailing. For this issue (No 2) we have substantially reduced the mailing coverage, so please pass your copy to a colleague who perhaps has not received a copy. If non-members wish to continue to receive Liquid Crystals Today, then please return the slip: a charge will be necessary to cover production and mailing.

All members of the ILCS will of course continue to receive their copies of Liquid Crystals Today directly mailed. Please notify the Secretary of any difficulties concerning distribution.
