

This volume of Macromolecular Symposia is the conference proceeding volume from the latest AFPM 2011 conference held at the University of Twente campus in Enschede, the Netherlands, from June 15th - June 17th, 2011. This meeting was organized by Dirk Grijpma, Andreas Lendlein and Luigi Ambrosio as the second conference in the annual Advanced Functional Polymers for Medicine conference series. Special thanks is given to the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences (KNAW), the MIRA Institute for Biomedical Technology and Technical Medicine of the University of Twente, PolyVation and DSM, who enabled the realization of this seminar with their financial support, and to the European Society of Biomaterials for endorsement.
