Chloé Brasé

Winner of January

In the spotlight winner of the month: Model Chloé Brasé

Can you tell us a little about you?

Well, my name is Chloé Brasé, I am French. I am a model at Women Management in Paris and I study Dietetic online. I am creative and independant. I love sport and food.

If you could change anything about yourself, what would it be?

I would like to be taller, for my job that is all. However, I would like to be less a dreamer and be able to do everything I would like to do. I might need some more life for that!

How did you start modeling?

I started by posing for Fashion, Make Up and Hair students.

What do you think of the work as a model?

I do like it, it is fun, relax and you can travel (what I LOVE to do) but sometimes it is not that fun, specially during castings periods and when you see a good option going away! development.

What is your beauty regimen?

I take care of my self all the time, I eat healthy and clean. I go to Yoga Bikram and sleep every hours I do need. I use only natural products, going to the vegan regimen slowly.

What are your plans for the future?

I do want to work as a dietician. I want to work for sport team, I want to follow the people I help and see their

What are some of your favorite experiences so far?

I have been an exchange student in America after my high school diploma in France. I loved it, it is an important experience in my life. I love adventure.

Do you have any advice for those who want to start modeling?

They should have their high school diploma for sure, at least. Studies are important to stay on earth and beeing able to think by ourself. And they should listen to their body, whatever they hear about, you have to be good with yourself to work well in this industry.

What do you think of the magazine?

I like the magazine, the way it shares a lot of different informations. And there is a good community, that is important to have more diversity.
