

ChemComm - a vibrant blend of high quality research from across the chemical sciences

Registered Charity No. 207890

CC AD 011 20402 - mono

ChemComm
...the perfect mix

Celebrating in 2005:

- 40 years of successful publication
- An increase in frequency to weekly publication – improving print publication times even further
- An increase to three page communications – providing authors with more flexibility to develop their results and discussion

www.rsc.org/chemcomm

17th Lakeland Heterocyclic Symposium

Grasmere
5 – 9 May, 2005

The biennial 17th Lakeland Heterocyclic Symposium will take place at Grasmere from Thursday 5th May to Monday 9th May 2005

Plenary speakers

Professor K. B. Sharpless (Scripps, USA)

Professor A. G. Myers (Harvard, USA)

Professor P. Wipf (Pittsburgh, USA)

Professor A. R. Katritzky (Florida, USA)

Professor J. P. Zhu (Gif, France)

Professor F. P. J. T. Rutjes (Nijmegen, Netherlands)

Professor V. K. Aggarwal (Bristol, UK)

Professor I. Paterson (Cambridge, UK)

Professor D. L. Comins (N. Carolina State, USA)
will deliver the 7th 'Professor Charles Rees Lecture'

Plus a series of short talks to be chosen from the registered delegates.

There are still some places remaining. For further information visit website <http://www.rsc.org/lap/rsccom/dab/perk003.htm> or contact Dr Paul Stevenson at p.stevenson@qub.ac.uk.