A SPECIAL ISSUE OF BRAIN RESEARCH BULLETIN
TO BE PUBLISHED IN EARLY 1982

“Monoamine Histochemistry: A Twenty Year Commemoration”

Edited by John R Sladek, Jr and Anders Bjorklund

University of Rochester, Rochester NY and University of Lund, Lund Sweden

This tribute to the inception of monoamine histochemistry recognizes the valuable introduction of the formaldehyde induced fluorescence technique for the demonstration of intraneuronal monoamines as presented by Bengt Falck and Nils Åke Hillarp in 1962. Original contributions as well as special reviews from noted scientists worldwide will be featured.
