Meeting Report: International Behavioral Neuroscience Society

The first meeting of the International Behavioral Neuroscience Society was held on May 21–24, 1992, in San Antonio, TX. Over 100 papers were presented in general poster sessions as well as at paper sessions on each topic theme chosen for this meeting: obesity, hunger and satiety; peptides, neurotransmitters and behavior; artificial tissue engineering: Neural transplants, regeneration, and behavioral recovery.

The Society was officially established at the meeting through the approval of By-laws by the meeting attendees (founding members). Officers were elected as follows: Matthew J. Wayner, President; Paul R. Sanberg, President-elect; Linda P. Spear, Secretary; Michael L. Woodruff, Treasurer. Council representatives were elected to represent the international constituency of the Society: Claude A. Bernard, Australia; Klaus-Peter Ossenkopp, Canada; Manuel Freire-Garabal and László Lénárd, Eurasia; Yutaka Oomura, Japan; Rene Drucker-Colín, Latin America; Robert L. Isaacson and Abba J. Kastin, USA. In addition, Annie Morien and Paul A. Rushing were elected by the student caucus as student representatives to the Council.

The second annual meeting of the Society will be held on April 22–25, 1993, at Clearwater Beach, FL. Suggestions for symposia and/or topics are invited. For meeting information or a membership application, contact:
