ERRATUM

Phil. Trans. R. Soc. Lond. B 300, 553–585 (1983)

Emeraldella and Leanchoilia, two arthropods from the Burgess Shale, Middle Cambrian,
British Columbia

BY D. L. BRUTON AND H. B. WHITTINGTON, F.R.S.

It is regretted that, owing to the incorrect folding of the sheet inserted between pages 560 and 561, the descriptions of plates 2–10, and the corresponding explanatory drawings, do not appear opposite the relevant plates. The error was not immediately apparent to the binders because of the unhappy chance that the wrong folding still yielded the correct sequence of the numbered plates.

The copies of the paper provided as offprints to the authors and those included in the bound volume (Transactions B 300) have been corrected. Subscribers who have the separate issues bound should bring the error to the notice of their binder.
