

tifull effusion of blood after the biting is capable to save the bitten Animal, &c.

Among the many new Experiments he relateth one, which is not to be passed by ; viz. That he had put up in a Glass Vessel the poysonous liquor taken out of two hundred and fifty Vipers, with a design to make various tryals therewith, as often as he should have leisure ; but that being diverted by many avocations from accomplishing his purpose, it came to pass that that juyce turn'd to a kind of glue, of the colour of Amber, and after the lapse of thirty days, it became dry and friable, and easily reducible to powder, and that having pulverized it, out of a desire to see whether this powder, being put into wounds, made by him in Pullets and Pigeons, did keep the same force of poysoning ; he found, that in a little time there dyed all the Pullets and Pigeons, into whose wounds he had put a quantity of this powder.

A Note.

WHEREAS Numb. 64. p. 2071. l. 27. mention is made of a Letter of Dr. Wallis about the Moons Perigæum in the matter of Tydes ; the Reader may be pleased to take this further notice, That that mention is to be understood to have been made in the Latine Version given by the said Doctor, of his Answer to the Objections to his Hypothesis ; (for in the English, Printed Numb. 16, 'tis not :) In which Version sent long agoe by way of Letter to the Publisher, are these words ; (to be inserted after those of Num. 16. p. 286. l. 11. viz. The Niceties are to be adjusted in time, from particular Observation ; )

Et quidem, si ad minutias descendere libuisset, habenda fuisset ratio, tum Apogæi & Perigæi Lunæ, tum Obliquitatis Orbitæ Lunaris ad Eclipticam comparata, & Intersectio-num, quas Caput & Caudam Draconis dicunt. Sed & monendum fuisset, Terra Motum Annuum atque Diurnum, cum non eundem seu parallelos Axes habeant, se mutuo nunc magis nunc minus interfecare : Item, Inundationes Nilii, aliorumque aliquot fluviorum, statis Anni temporibus factas, ad hujusmodi forte causam referri posse : fortassis & flatos ventos. Sed hæc in altâ plane prætereo, aliæque hujusmodi multa ; quæ tamen, si quando ad particularia deveniendum erit, con deranda erunt.
