Subsequent to the online publication of this paper on 18 September 2009, the authors have requested an additional line in the Acknowledgments and the addition of a “Note added in proof”. The addition to the Acknowledgment section on page 5 should read as “We thank Cesare Franchini for useful discussions.”; the additional text of “Note added in proof” should read as “After the acceptance of the present work, it has been brought to our attention that a hybrid-functional calculation on tetragonal CuO has been published (X.-Q. Chen, C. L. Fu, C. Franchini, and R. Podloucky, Phys. Rev. B 80, 094527 (2009)).”. The paper has been corrected as of 7 October 2009. The text is correct in the printed version of the journal.
