

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LATIN AMERICAN SOCIETY OF PHYTOCHEMISTRY

During a recent meeting on the Chemistry of the Native Flora held in Concepcion, Chile from 21 to 25 November 1983, with scientists from most Latin American countries it was agreed to organize the Latin American Society of Phytochemistry. The initial activities will include the publication of a regional newsletter and the organization of an adequate Directory of Latin American Scientists in this field. Dr. Luis J. Corcuera has been elected Secretary General of the new Society and he would be pleased to hear from anyone seeking membership. His address is: Departamento de Biología, Facultad Ciencias Básicas y Farmacéuticas, Universidad de Chile, Casilla 653, Santiago, Chile.
