

THE ISOZYME BULLETIN

THE Isozyme Bulletin, conceived at the second annual Isozyme Conference in 1967, is a publication for the informal exchange of information relevant to scientists interested in isozymes at any level and from any point of view. The format is similar to other informal information exchange bulletins, and it is presently published annually. For further details contact:

Dr. John G. Scandalios, Editor
The Isozyme Bulletin
Atomic Energy Commission Plant Research Laboratory
Michigan State University
East Lansing, Michigan 48823