Announcement

Please note that the Polymer paper on 'Impact Polypropylene Copolymers Fractionation', by F. M. Mirabella, 1993, 34, 1729–1735, reports the same work as that found in 'Microstructural Characterization of Impact Resistant Polypropylene Copolymers', F. M. Mirabella, Journal of Applied Polymer Science: Applied Polymer Symposium 1992, 51, 117–134. Whilst the publishers realize that, in this instance, a genuine error was made, authors should be aware that strong action will be taken should any incidence of dual publication of articles published in Polymer arise.
