Buy More Products

The remodeling industry often feels like the old Rodney Dangerfield quote, "I don't get no respect." Government doesn't track the industry numbers. Local suppliers struggle to deliver the service professional remodelers need. And building product manufacturers give most of their love to builders.

A remodeling friend of mine from Chicago once told me that when building product manufacturers want to woo a builder, they give him a house. When they want to woo a remodeler, they give him a T-shirt. The point is obvious. Suppliers sell a whole lot more product to builders than they do remodelers. The actual difference is hard to calculate, and, says Kermit Baker, can only be guessed at by making assumptions about certain spending habits. Baker is the director of the Remodeling Futures Program at the Joint Center for Housing Studies at Harvard University.

But here's what we do know. Any supplier is going to be interested in selling a lot of product to a single buyer because it makes it easier and focuses the sale.

Last year, Pulte Homes in Bloomfield, Mich., built more than 20,000 homes, even in the downturn. They manage to attract a bit of attention from suppliers because those numbers translate into serious business. The largest remodeler in the country does a fraction of that many projects, and most of the product investment is in a limited line. Builders buy everything.

During the housing decline, though, more suppliers are looking to the remodeling market. This happens every downturn. All of a sudden suppliers, builders, trades and service providers consider remodelers potential clients to keep their businesses going happy. As soon as the next uptick in housing activity comes along, they go back to their love for builders.

So how do remodelers get respect? Aggregate. The associations, franchises and other aggregators of businesses in the remodeling industry get a lot of attention from suppliers (a lot by remodeling standards) because suppliers reduce the cost of sale by reaching out to groups of buyers rather than taking on onesy-twosies. That's simple.

We need bigger remodeling companies that buy more products and are professionally run.

But the problem for manufacturers is that nobody in those groups can compel the other members to buy a particular product. Even in franchise situations, the local franchisee may be able to get better service and pricing from a supplier on a product that is not in favor with the franchisor. Because the franchisor gets a percentage of the revenue from the franchisee, it's in everybody's interest to let the local company drive the decision.

So, what's the solution? We need bigger remodeling companies that buy more products and are professionally run. They have to maintain the same level of customer service and quality as the smaller guys, which with today's improved processes is completely achievable. But they have to be bigger.

You want a little lovin'? Grow your company.

Strength Meets Versatility

Introducing LiteSteel™ beam. A perfect combination of the strength of steel and ease of use of wood.

Basement Beams

Lightweight LSB carries a load equal to other structural beams at a greatly reduced weight. Installation is simple; services can be concealed within its C-shaped profile.

Structural Beams

Our patented cold-forming process gives LSB exceptional structural performance, making it ideal for heavy loads and long spans.

Garage Beams

LSB is easy to specify, handle and install. Design software and technical support are readily available.

Long Span Headers

Perfect for garage doors, French doors, arches and large windows, LSB can be cut on site using standard tools.

Ridge Beams

LSB is easy to connect to wood and other building products with nails, screws and standard connectors.

Simplify your project and your life with LiteSteel beam (LSB®). Available directly from your local pro-dealer, LSB eliminates frustrating delays and saves time and money.

We call it LiteSteel beam for a reason; skip the crane for easy hand placement. LSB is on average 40% lighter than hot-rolled steel beams or engineered wood, but with the same load-bearing capacity. Plus there are no special tool requirements to cut, drill, or fasten LSB. It's just easier to work with—Period.

Specify LSB in your next new construction or remodeling project and get introduced to quicker, easier installation and lower installed cost.

Visit www.LiteSteelbeam.com or call 1-877-285-2607.

A man's profile is shown in a three-quarter view, looking upwards and to the left. On top of his head, a small, detailed orange and black construction vehicle, resembling a skid steer loader or a small excavator, is balanced. The man has short brown hair and a light beard. He is wearing a blue denim shirt. The background is plain white.

PRODUCT PROFILE

LiteSteel Technologies Brings LSB® to the U.S. Residential and Light Commercial Building Markets

LiteSteel Technologies America, a OneSteel Group Company, produces LiteSteel™ beam (LSB®) from its $30-million facility in Troutville, Virginia. LSB has been used successfully in Australia for more than four years in thousands of residential and light commercial applications.

LSB is designed with engineering features and benefits that reduce time and installation costs for builders, remodelers, contractors and framers. LSB is an attractive alternative for beam and header applications. On average 40% lighter than LVLs or hot-rolled steel beams, LSB offers the same structural capacity. There are no special tool requirements and LSB can be placed by hand.

LSB's patented manufacturing process gives it a unique profile with a flat, thin web and two fully welded hollow flanges for maximum structural performance in terms of load carrying capacity, bending moment and deflection from the amount of steel employed. LSB is produced in 12 different sizes, ranging in nominal beam depth from eight to 14 inches.

Through its preferred distribution partner agreements with Boise Cascade, BlueLinx and Wholesale Building Materials, LSB is available through pro-dealers in virtually every major market from Colorado east. Distribution plans also include the West Coast and Canada in the near future.

A It Sparkles

The Lenox Diamond hole uses a unique brazed diamond edge that reduces the grab that can occur when cutting hard materials. The saws require less cutting pressure, therefore reducing premature wear to the saw's edge. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-337>

B Track It Down

No one needs to tell this crowd that construction materials and vehicle theft are big problems. Intergris offers a solution with its Kuva system. Kuva enables companies to track and protect expensive assets, including heavy equipment, vehicles, loads and cargo shipments using GPS/GSM system technology. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-338>

C Your Safety Net

Made for controlled descent, self-rescue, emergency evacuation and assisted rescue, Capital Safety's Roll-glass Rescue Ladder is there when you need it most. The ladder can be anchored to a structure and dropped down to the victim's level so that he or she can easily climb up or down to safety. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-339>

D Powered Up

The new PowerCrew from Knaack has four GFCI protected electrical outlets providing 15 amps of power for operating tools or charging batteries. The power source comes from a standard three-prong straight blade extension cord, which plugs into the outside of the box. Other safety features include an internal relay that provides open neutral protection, a red LED that indicates power is on and a 15 amp fuse for current overload protection. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-340>

E Hail to the Chief

The new Chief Architect Interiors Software is chock full of features. The Cabinets Catalog lists manufacturer and generic cabinets. The 2- and 3-D automated building and design tools can give you photorealistic renderings and allow you to create construction drawings per NKBA standards. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-341>

F Done Fast

Duo Fast has a new nailer with some top-notch technology in the DF350S

20 degree Round Head Framing Nailer. The unique top load magazine makes it easy and fast to load strips of nails. The magazine takes up to 60 nails at a time, or two strips of paper tape nails from 2 inches to 3 1/2 inches long in smooth, ring or screw shank with various diameters. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-342>

G Power to the People

You can't beat the power or run times of the latest 18-volt lines. Porter-Cable's new LX (PC18BLX) and EX (PC18BLEX) 18-volt, lithium-ion battery line features extended run-time so you can build a cordless system tailored to your needs. The batteries can be used interchangeably with any of the company's related tools. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-343>

Best Tools & Software

I24

H Level the Field

C.H. Hanson's Precision Ball Level has a 360-degree rotating aviation ball compass that allows users to easily read if a surface is level or plumb. You can even level in two directions at the same time. Laying the level on its side shows if surfaces are level on both planes. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-344>

I Small Wonder

The 4-volt lithium-ion battery provides a number of features such as a long run time and long-shelf life so your batteries will always be ready for action. The 4-volt lithium-ion battery powers the Ryobi Tek4 family of professional electronic tools and Ryobi 4V power tools — there's a ton of them (motion-sensing alarm shown here) and we've tried them all out. Trust us, they're pretty sweet. For FREE

information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-345>

J 18-Volt Domination

DeWalt's XRP line was chosen for its technological innovations. The tools have been completely redesigned with patented three-speed transmission and new high-power, high-efficiency frameless motors for greatly improved speeds and longer run times. The new self-tightening chuck is a nice touch, too. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-346>

K Don't Forget to Salute

Branching out into home inspections? You'll need one of these. General's Moisture Meters provide an efficient method for detecting hidden leaks and excess moisture. The highly sensitive contact probes sniff out moisture in wood, concrete, plaster carpet and grain. Easy-to-use LED or LCD displays indicate both relative and percentage moisture readings. It's good for checking the moisture content of your lumber, too. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-347>

L It Hacks All

Introducing the new Hackzall from Milwaukee. The M12 features a 12-volt lithium-ion battery with enough juice to cut more than 80 pieces of 1½-inch PVC on a single charge. The 2420-22 delivers a ½-inch stroke 3,000 times per minute for a smooth yet aggressive cut and utilizes a key-less Quik-Lok blade clamp to ensure quick and easy blade changes. For FREE information, visit <http://pr.hotims.com/23745-348>

M Tight Squeeze

Bosch's ultra-compact, cordless PS30 features higher torque, higher speeds, a two-speed drivetrain and a standard three-jawed chuck design.
