The Editors' Note:

WITH MORE THAN 1,000 radio programs changing to new broadcast times as daylight-saving time passes for another year, Movie-Radio Guide's most spectacular feature this week becomes, of course, the program section! And only in Movie-Radio Guide will you find the new time listings, complete and convenient!

THIS WEEK: Movie-Radio Guide with this issue passes another milestone in the history of radio. Its editors welcome the many new readers who awaken suddenly to the fact that their radio sets are pretty dull instruments unless they can quickly locate the programs which disappear into thin air in many parts of the country as change of time goes into effect. Greetings to those who are reading Movie-Radio Guide for the first time and hello again to those old friends who have followed it through the years.

As an added attraction in this issue we present a brief resume of the new programs going on the air. You will want to know what's happened to certain of your old radio friends who pop up as strange voices on new programs now that new fall shows are getting into full swing. There will be still more changes in the next few weeks. Your Movie-Radio Guide will tell you what they are as no other publication in America can.

Don't forget that this is one of the biggest entertainment years radio has ever known. Don't forget that Movie-Radio Guide doubles your radio enjoyment. Tell your friends.

P. S. Congratulations to Mickey Rooney on his twenty-first birthday. See page 1.

NEXT WEEK: Newspaper readers in many parts of the country have followed Eleanor Roosevelt's "My Day" column for years. Among other new programs, the President's wife is appearing on a thirteen-week series for the Pan-American Coffee Bureau. To celebrate her return to the air in a new series Movie-Radio Guide in its next issue begins a remarkable three-part photo story of Mrs. Roosevelt's life. We believe you will want to follow the series, for it reveals many interesting facts not hitherto known.

It is a coincidence that in the next issue Mrs. Roosevelt's famous husband also makes his appearance. He has been examined in a poll by Movie-Radio Guide readers who have answered the question: "Do You Approve the President's Policies?" The interesting answers will be divulged next week.

If you are a football enthusiast—and what few Americans are not?—you'll want to follow the predictions now being made exclusively for Movie-Radio Guide by famous football experts as to what teams are most likely to win their games each Saturday. Watch for these predictions each week. And we'll let you in on a secret—you will have a chance soon to pit your own opinion against the football experts and help in selecting an all-America team.

Next week also we cover the Army maneuvers—and in the same issue present pictures of that phenomenal radio program, "Basin Street Chamber Music Society." Rather a wide divergence of subjects, but simply more proof that there's always something of interest to everybody—in Movie-Radio Guide.

—The Editors.

TODAY MICKEY ROONEY IS A MAN!

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE salutes Mickey Rooney, alias Andy Hardy, who on Tuesday, September 23, celebrated his twenty-first birthday, realized his American birthright—the privilege to vote. Today Mickey Rooney is a man! Questioned on the set of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Babes on Broadway" picture, which he is currently making with Judy Garland, Mickey was asked how it felt to be twenty-one. Rooney-like, he prefaced his remarks sensibly, said: "Man to man, I don't think anything I can say will be world-shaking, but if you really want to know what my future hopes are, I'll tell you. First, I'd like to continue my music-writing and some day contribute a significant composition; second, eventually, I hope to become a motion-picture director and bring some truly fine plays to the screen, and last but not least, I hope this year and in the years to come that I will continue to make good and live up to the standards set for me by my mother, my Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer sponsors, and those fans who have contributed so much to my success." Incidentally, Rooney is scheduled to open the fall season of "The Silver Theater," CBS radio series, Sunday, October 5, as the guest star of an original radio drama.

IN "Babes in Arms," Mickey, with June Preisser (above), bravely smokes (that is, tries to smoke) his first cigar

TYPICAL Rooney and the type of thing that has endeared him to millions is his imitation (r.) of Lionel Barrymore

Hedy Lamarr Wins Her Battle

LESS than ten years ago Hedy Lamarr was Mrs. Frederic Mandel, rich, unhappy wife of a munitions manufacturer. Before that she was Hedy Kiesler. Wed at eighteen with an acting career hardly begun, it was not until 1937 that she escaped a life she hated and began a fight to America.

Known as the "Ecstasy Girl" because of an early appearance in a dubious film, she had much to live down, more when critics failed to acknowledge she was anything more than a beautiful woman, and certainly not an actress.

"I want to act," Hedy said. "I can act—not live on a false reputation made when I was too young to know what I was doing." Producers have taken her at her word and gradually "brought her along" in better parts. In the meantime, Hedy has wed and divorced Gene Markey, struck for more pay than her $500 and eventually reached the $1,000 a week class.

Now at last she has what she always has wanted—a really fine role. Dubious movie-goers have written to the studio protesting that she of all actresses is not the one to do the delicate, difficult role of Marvin Myles in "H. M. Pulham, Esq." She is now before the cameras, playing opposite Robert Young in the title role of this great book.

Ten fantastic years have enriched the personal experiences of Hedy Lamarr, now twenty-six. She has won her battle to become an important star in Hollywood. She is on the verge of proving the bonus point that she is a fine actress. It has been hard work in face of many thankless critics, but it proves that Hedy meant it when she said early in her Hollywood career: "I am young and madly ambitious. I will prove what I am worth!" —C. S.

ABOVE: One of Hollywood's most beautiful women, Hedy Lamarr's gray-green eyes are her most compelling beauty feature. Right: Close-up view reveals extreme fairness, unblemished quality of her skin, proving Hedy's beauty is not of make-up variety. It's her beauty that's been Hedy's worst handicap to success

LEFT: While her acting in "I Take This Woman" was not strong, Hedy learned a great deal from working with veteran Spencer Tracy, a superior actor. Hedy is not a party girl, always strives to make something of her career, listens to directors

LADIES!

Here Is Such A Special Introductory Offer to Movie-Radio Guide Readers

WE HOPE YOU DON'T MISS A WORD OF IT

LADIES . . . have you ever wished to own an expensive diamond ring? Well, you know that the marching armies of Europe have brought the diamond centers of the world to a virtual standstill. With genuine diamond prices shooting skyward, it might be a long, long time before your dreams came true. But here's amazing news. If you act now, today, you can obtain a beautiful solitaire replica diamond ring, nearly  $\frac{3}{4}$  karat size, one of America's greatest imitations, in a gorgeous sterling silver or gold-plate mounting, during one of the greatest value-giving advertising offers in all history! Simply mail the coupon below. Inspect this remarkable solitaire replica diamond, wear it for 10 days. If you aren't delighted in every way, you need not lose a penny!

Have You Ever Wished To Own A Beautiful Expensive Looking Replica Diamond Solitaire?

JUST think! No other type ring so beautifully expresses the sentiment of true love as a Solitaire . . . a replica diamond solitaire, gleaming in its crystal white beauty . . . exquisitely set in a sterling silver or yellow gold-plate ring that proudly encircles "her" finger . . . the perfect symbol of life's sweetest sentiment . . . an adorable token of love and affection. Replica diamonds are decidedly new and very fashionable. So closely do they resemble real diamonds in flaming, dazzling colors, the average person can scarcely tell them apart. So you, too, should inspect this replica diamond solitaire. Mail the coupon, see for yourself that it is one of the world's most popular ring styles. Consider your replica diamond on-approval for ten days. # Olivia de Havilland— A Star NOT in LOVE

LEFT: Olivia de Havilland, who for three years after her first Hollywood success specialized in being sweet and simple, today is a changed person. No longer meek, Olivia possesses poise, self-assurance, today is one of Hollywood's most sophisticated actresses

LOVELY Olivia de Havilland is a star with more male satellites than there are Democratic office-holders. A perfect Technicolor subject, Olivia of the light-brown hair, the deep, brown eyes and classic symmetry of features has a constant train of Hollywood's most eligible and most desirable bachelors wending their romantic way to her door. So far Olivia has treated them like moths around the flame, being kind enough to brush them off before they get their wings singed.

The one exception was her "lengthy" seven-month romance with Jimmy Stewart, now Corporal Stewart. While Olivia's other romantic suitors had the appearance of studio hirelings, as did the Stewart dating at first, the Stewart-De Havilland twosome took on the aspect of something much more serious than a "shore leave" romance, and all of Hollywood's angle-mongers were intimating a secret marriage, a sudden elopement. However, this "pursuit of romance" broke off cleaner than a Sunday suit, and now both Jimmy and Olivia have more variety in their dating than the shape of things on the beach at Coney Island.

Olivia de Havilland got her "break" into pictures by being an understudy to an understudy. As the stardust began to shower down upon her young shoulders, she was often quoted as saying, "I don't want romance or marriage for a long, long time." And for a while she came close to keeping her word on both counts. She became known as the "Elsie Dinsmore" of Hollywood—a sweet young thing to be babied and fathered by every person on the lot but with about as much color as a cold sheet. Her chief claim to fame was as "Errol Flynn's leading lady." As a result they were about to wheel her career into the nearest closet and throw away the key. All of a sudden Olivia realized that she had a one-way ticket to the old maid actresses' home, and overnight she exploded into a new woman. Sophistication was a long time in coming, but it came!

Overnight the Olivia de Havilland with the air of a gingham-clad country maid on her first picnic exoriated her innocent-sweet disposition. Overnight, cigarette smoke didn't make her cough, a highball began to have its moments (although she still prefers coke and ice-cream and will imbibe in such character dissipation at every opportunity offered, including Ciro's). She quit quoting Shakespeare, she started wearing "clothes for effect!" instead of "clothes for use," she started feuding with her studio, and her weekly list of dates sounded like the roster of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

So today Olivia, who is just finishing her eighth picture with Errol Flynn, "They Died With Their Boots On," still refuses to get serious about love. The girl who several seasons back gave up tea-rooms and an "Elsie Dinsmore" by-line for soft-lighted Hollywood niteries and not-too-covetous bachelors, has become very furtive about her love-life. Olivia admits that she wants marriage, but it must be the "right man."

But the way Miss de Havilland gloats over her freedom belies any statement that she might make to the effect that she wants to get serious about love. If Olivia can't find the "right" guy from among a bevy of the Screen Capital's bachelors that include Fra'ncot Tone, Gene Markey, Burgess Meredith, Jimmy Stewart, Richard Travis, et al., it must be concluded that the De Havilland girl is enjoying her "rejuvenation" too much to get serious about any one love or any one man for some time to come.

OLIVIA (above, left) used to be simple in manner, fastes. Today her dresses are "gowns" or very chic sports clothes. Center: When dining out, she can order most complicated, unexpected dishes and not once look self-conscious. Her romance with Jimmy Stewart (right) was favorite topic in Hollywood, but today Olivia has no serious love

IN "HOLD BACK THE DAWN" Olivia de Havilland, schoolmarm, is courted by Charles Boyer, refugee, who marries her to get into the U. S.

DELAYED in Mexico with her school-boys when their bus is damaged, Olivia meets Boyer, who arranges quarters for her and boys at his hotel

BOYER TAKES advantage of Olivia, uses his continental gallantry to win the schoolmarm's love, marries her to gain own ends

AT THE HOTEL Olivia meets other woman in Boyer's life, Paullette Goddard, learns Boyer married her to get into the U. S. A.

OLIVIA leaves, wrecks car en route to United States. Boyer, learning this, crashes border to be at wife's side, convinces Olivia that he loves her

WEEKS PASS, Olivia recovers, Boyer's application to enter U. S. is passed in Washington. Olivia and Boyer are reunited, all ends happily

ABOVE: Recent portrait of Olivia. Her change from "a little country girl" into one of screenland's most charming actresses, escorted about Hollywood's rendezvous by the most desirable bachelor actors, began when she won role of Melanie in "Gone With the Wind." The about-face wasn't easy, she admits, but she felt it had to be done. Today, as a result, Olivia is an acknowledged actress, a sparkling personality

THIS IS JOAN CARROLL

From NEW JERSEY

BECAUSE her mother changed her from a sweet little darling with Shirley Temple curls into a pig-tailed brat is the reason that Joan Carroll is making a name for herself in pictures today. After a lot of tantalizing nibbles at a real Hollywood career, Mrs. Felt, Joan's mother, was about to believe that the Hollywood entree would never arrive. Finally, when RKO began casting their talent-net for young "meanie" to play the part of Ginger Rogers' sister "Primrose Path," Joan's mother decided to shoot the works. She deprettied Joan and Joan walked off with the part. In the picture she was such a success that she has been a busy little actress ever since. In her latest, "Obliging Young Lady," Joan has the title role.—L. R.

CHILD STARS are

THIS IS CAROLYN LEE

OHIO TYKE

NOW that Shirley Temple is in her teens and definitely on the way to being completely grown up, the foremost contender for the soft spot in the public's heart is tiny Carolyn Copp, renamed Carolyn Lee for pictures. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE has reported on this remarkable child before, but now she rates even stronger attention by virtue of her appearance with Bing Crosby in "Birth of the Blues." Carolyn is quite unlike Shirley in the early days in everything except her baby cuteness. Where Shirley was a trained dancer, Carolyn is just a natural girl with an acute talent for mimicry, perfectly illustrated in pictures on this page. Carolyn currently lives in Hollywood, but she goes home to Martins Ferry, Ohio, between pictures to lead a normal life with her parents, her father being a steel-mill executive.—C. S.

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS

Inside story behind work on Hollywood's biggest headache since "Gone With the Wind"

REPORTERS in Hollywood who grow tired of trying to find out just when Victor Mature will divorce Mrs. Mature, or when Lana Turner will stop going with Tony Martin and marry him, sometimes turn to constructive sleuthing. For example, Paramount's filming of Ernest Hemingway's best-selling novel, "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

This story of the Spanish war tells what killing and hate does to the common people. A powerful piece of writing, its translation into a screen play via the expert hand of director Sam Wood is an event as important as the launching of "Gone With the Wind."

While much of the search for Scarlett O'Hara was expert publicity juggling, the struggle to find heroine Maria and hero Robert Jordan is a serious matter, and not staged just for headline purposes. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE presents the first pictures of tests being made for the film, does not guarantee or suggest that any of these people will play the parts. Hundreds will be tested, and when the cameras first start to roll three weeks hence, several of the players will not yet have been cast. But that's Hollywood! —C. S.

THIS IS PABLO as visualized by character-actor Albert Dekker in a test. Sullen, suspicious, animal-like, Pablo is nominal leader of a band of Spanish gypsies who carry on guerrilla warfare against Fascists in the story. No ordinary role, his characterization must run the gamut from murderous villainy to ferocious loyalty

Luise Rainer

Paulette Goddard

Ingrid Bergman

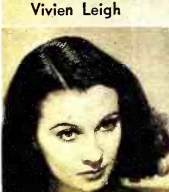

Betty Field

Barbara Stanwyck

THIS IS THE ARTIST'S conception of Maria in "For Whom the Bell Tolls"—a simple country girl caught in the elemental savagery of civil war. To play Maria, actresses by the dozens have been tested, among them those pictured above and below, but director Sam Wood has yet to decide which is the right Maria

Vivien Leigh

FOR THE IMPORTANT ROLE of Pilar, cursing, domineering wife of Pablo and actual leader of the guerrillas in Hemingway's novel, famed actress Nazimova, seen above, made extensive tests

BLANCHE YURKA, also as Pilar, visualizes the dynamic, tough-minded gypsy woman who drives her men to bloody forays against the enemy, again is gentle and mother to Maria

TEST CAMERA turns here on a love-scene between MacDonald Carey and Esther Fernandez, playing Robert Jordan and Maria. Chances are 1,000 to 1 they won't play parts in actual picture. Working daytime on another picture, Sam Wood has been viewing dozens of tests every night, is still keeping mum about his selections

Today in Hollywood

Tone Out, Sound Again

Hale, hearty, and fully recovered from his recent kidney operation, Franchot Tone on his first night out took his pretty girl friend, Jean Wallace, former show girl now in pictures, to the Ice Follies

Flynn Entertains Friends

Errol Flynn, separated from his beautiful wife, Lili Damita, who is proceeding with divorce plans, last week entertained Miami friends, the Louis Struebers and their daughter, Florence, at Mocambo

Boyer Steps Out with Wife

Seldom seen in Cinema City's popular cafes, even more seldom dancing, Charles Boyer, idol of thousands of women, made news when he stepped out for a night of dancing at the Scheherazade with his attractive wife, Pat Paterson

GENERAL

V. F. W. Sponsored

Another lethal wallop has been dealt the senate sub-committee charging the movie industry with "war-mongering." This wallop comes from the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which is sponsoring showing of Warners' historical and national preparedness shorts throughout the nation. Warners, called "alarmists" by an oleo-tongued senator, is working hand and glove with the V. F. W. in providing free bookings of these shorts to encourage good citizenship and loyalty among the American people. And regardless of what calumny the senators froth out, few people will have the gross temerity to intimate that the venerable V. F. W. would hitch itself to war-inciters. As claimed by Wendell Willkie, the investigation has been nothing but a ludicrous sideshow, without fact or foundation, trying to flare ever higher racial prejudice and national disunity—and at the same time setting the stage for certain senators to grab buckets of publicity.

Hayden "Hates" Hollywood

The tall fellow who vaulted into Hollywood's limelight in a rush seems to have left all the glitter and gold flatter than a tramp's pocketbook. He says he has quit the movies for his first love—the sea, but just why all this should be going on just after his widely publicized romance with Madeleine Carroll has Hollywood believing that there is a lot more to the whole business than meets the eye. His studio presented Hayden with a $17,000 boat as a placating gift, but Stirling has given it back to them, saying he doesn't want any Hollywood strings attached to him.

Bette Bitten

While making sure the Scotty she was keeping for friends was comfortable for the night, Bette Davis on September 13 was severely bitten on the nose by the dog. The gash necessitated several stitches and will confine Bette to her home for at least two weeks. Production on her latest picture, "Man Who Came to Dinner," will also be delayed. The accident occurred early Saturday, September 13, shortly after Bette and her husband, Arthur Farnsworth, had bidden good night to several friends.

New Premiere Idea

Rapid-thinking Paramount studio officials came up with a good publicity (Please Turn to Next Page)

TOURNAMENT TENNIS

VOLUNTEERING their services, Mickey Rooney, Gilbert Roland, Cesar Romero, Bobby (Jinx' little brother) Falkenberg, Nat Pendleton, Rudy Vallee, Jinx Falkenberg and Claire Trevor played exhibition tennis matches for the benefit of the Children's Aid Division of the British War Relief Association at the Ambassador Hotel courts on September 7. Nigel Bruce presided as master of ceremonies. Jane Withers and Freddie Bartholomew are co-presidents of the division. Nearly 900 fans paid from one dollar to $25 for box seats to watch the stars in action, also matches between Gracyn Wheeler Kelleher and Hal Surface, and Helen Willis Roark and Douglas Woodbury. (1) Mickey drew the biggest hand, played opposite (2) Cesar Romero, who went into this weird stance after missing a fast one. (3) Mickey kidded Jinx Falkenberg after her team was defeated, said her racket had a hole in it. (4) Match-making (left to right) Gilbert Roland, Bobby Falkenberg, Mickey Rooney and Rudy Vallee. (5) Claire Trevor was besieged for her autograph, as were the other celebrities gag when last September 9 they had Charles Boyer and Olivia de Havilland, stars of "Hold Back the Dawn," hold a long-distance telephone conversation with eight Boston movie scribes. The occasion for the mass transcontinental interview was the picture's premiere showing in the Bean City. No less than three of the movie critics pulled that antique crack about "wishing it were television" when Miss de Havilland came to the phone.

Tone Protests

Claiming that he paid $14,100 for a rare star sapphire jewel clip but received neither the clip nor his money back, Franchot Tone, recent hospital evacuee, has gone to the Los Angeles police with a protest. Seems that Tone put up the money for the jewel, reputedly valued at $25,000, and was to split the accrued profits, if and when, with a Beverly Hills jeweler. Tone has since failed to see either the stone or the money and is deeply concerned because he understands some wealthy New York woman is wearing the clip, and he wants to know who, why, when?

Maestro Mickey

Take it from Mickey Rooney, there is a greater thrill than meeting the President or being the nation's number one box-office star, or even dating most of Hollywood's single gals. It's hearing your own symphony broadcast. That was Rooney's thrill recently when a sixty-piece orchestra played and broadcast his "Meodante" over a Hollywood station. Thus Mickey became one of the few living persons having written a recognized symphony before the age of twenty-one.

Fan-Mail Fooler

Fan mail is the yardstick used to measure the popularity of most movie stars, but such is not true in the case of Charles Laughton. He probably receives less mail than a lot of extras, but still his name is big box-office. Reason, according to Joe Pasternak, producer of the Laughton-Durbin picture, "It Started With Eve," is because "Mr. Laughton has played a wide variety of roles with extreme reality, and in doing so he has submerged his own personality. Fans think of 'Captain Bligh' or 'Ruggles of Red Gap' or 'Henry VIII,' address unknown, instead of Charles Laughton, Hollywood and London. That's why they don't write but crowd to see his pictures."

"Oscar" Filled Cast

When Fay Bainter was selected to play the featured role in "Woman of the Year," the third Academy Award winner was planted in the cast of that picture. The picture's stars, Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn, have both snared "Oscars" and Miss Bainter won one for a supporting role.

HOLLYWOOD'S newest romantic twosome is the glamorous Simone Simon, French actress, and youthful attorney Bentley Ryan. Simone and Bentley were caught on their first date at Ciro's by a Movie-Radio Guide cameraman

LOVELY RITA HAYWORTH and hubby Eddie Jackson disproved separation rumors recently by enjoying an evening at Ciro's. In background: Chic Young (l.), creator of "Blondie," and Arthur (Dagwood) Lake

BRIEF Picture Guide

BECAUSE there were no outstanding motion pictures previewed in Hollywood during the past week, the regular department, "Movie-Radio Guide Critics' Report" is omitted from this issue.
—The Editors.

Outstanding Pictures

BLOSSOMS IN THE DUST: Greer Garson gives Academy Award performance with Walter Pidgeon in important sociological drama. (Adults.)
LADIES IN RETIREMENT: Ida Lupino is excellent in this thriller-chiller, as the woman who makes her life's work the care of her two demented sisters. (Adults.)

LIFE BEGINS FOR ANDY HARDY: Andy goes to New York and learns about the school of hard knocks. (Family.)

THE LITTLE FOXES: Realistic drama of a heartless, designing woman—Bette Davis' bid for another Academy Award. (Adults.)

LYDIA: Story of a woman and her four loves, brilliantly directed by French producer Julien Duvivier. A Bette Oberon triumph. (Adults.)

SERGEANT YORK: An honest fictionalized story of what really happened to a soldier. (A family must!)

Other Offerings

DIVE BOMBER: Errol Flynn, Fred MacMurray and Ralph Bellamy meet romance and adventure in educational aviation story. (Family.)

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE: Spencer Tracy gives a fresh interpretation of the old melodrama, aided by Ingrid Bergman, Lisa Turvet. (Adults.)

GENTLEMAN FROM DIXIE: There's tremendous heart appeal in this story of the old South, an ex-convict, a little girl and a horse. (Family.)

HERE COMES MR. JORDAN: Story of a spirit removed from a body fifty years before its time and comedy, with Robert Montgomery, Claude Rains, James Gleason. (Adults.)

HOLD BACK THE DAWN: Gigolo Charles Boyer contrives to marry school-teacher Olivia de Havilland—then falls in love with her. (Adults.)

NEW WINE: The story of Franz Schubert's tragic life. Ilona Massey, Alan Curtis co-star. (Family.)

TANKS A MILLION: A streamlined comedy packed with plenty of laughs based on Army life. (Family.)

THE PITTSBURGH KID: Billy Conn proves to be a good actor as well as prize-fighter. Thrills for all and is worth the price of admission. (Family.)

WILD GEESE CALLING: Henry Fonda and Joan Bennett wander all around the Klondike to get hitched and have a baby. (Adults.)

Comedy

FATHER TAKES A WIFE: Gloria Swanson comes back in story of an actress who finds marriage retirement more hectic than acting. (Adults.)

HOLD THAT GHOST: Abbott and Costello do their stuff in a spooky, old-time tavern, replete with clutching hands, eery noises. (Family.)

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope extracts plenty of belly-laughs from a slightly threadbare yarn. (Family.)

OUR WIFE: Scientist-heroine Ruth Hussey saves confused Melvyn Douglas from ex-wife Ellen Drew—and marries him. Good comedy. (Family.)

RINGSIDE MAISIE: Ring comedy-drama with some more than unusual twists—and Ann Sothern. (Family.)

WHISTLING IN THE DARK: Introducing radio comic Red Skelton to films in laugh riot. (Family.)

It Only Happens Here

There is a lean, hungry-looking tiger in Dorothy Lamour's new picture, "Malaya," named Satan. He works on schedule just as does everyone else, but there were a lot of chuckles on the lot the other morning when the call-sheet read: "9 a.m. Satan, if he isn't limping like he was yesterday."

THE WAR

Movie Money Problem

Government priorities on metals for defense industries has brought on quite a problem for the film industry. Especially affected has been the Alexander Korda Company filming Kipling's "The Jungle Book." The director ordered the property department to get 75,000 circular pieces of gold-colored metal that would look like coins for a buried-treasure sequence. Not a firm in Los Angeles could fill the bill, because all the brass and copper has been tied up by the government for the making of armaments. Finally, the ingenious property department supplied the spurious coins. They were gilded poker-chips.

Hey! Sarong Raffle

Two of Dottie Lamour's genuine sarongs are headed for the auction block. One headed by Clipper to London, another to Sydney, Australia. In each place they will be auctioned off for charity purposes to the highest bidder.

Report from England

From England comes the news that Vivien Leigh is touring the English provinces doing a Bernard Shaw play, while husband, Laurence Olivier, is busy in the R. A. F. defending the eastern littoral.

HOSPITALIZED

Ball Not Bouncing

Lucille Ball of the bright, starry eyes is in a Hollywood hospital having a complete medical check-up. The star has been losing weight regularly despite a real effort to put some pounds on, hence the hospitalization.

Florence Rice III

Florence Rice, actress and daughter of America's premier sports-columnist, Grantland Rice, is dangerously ill and has been moved to a sanitarium.

EN ROUTE

Who's Going Where?

Betty Grable entrained from Los Angeles September 10 for a New York vacation. She will meet George Raft in the big city, return to Hollywood by October 1 to start work in "Song of the Islands" . . . Barbara Hutton and Cary Grant are back in Hollywood from their Mexico City junket—still single . . . Joan Crawford has gone east with her two children for a tour of the New England states and eastern Canada . . . Bette Davis will nose toward her New Hampshire homestead and do some more building as soon as current commitments at Warners are finished . . . Charles Boyer will spend an October vacation in New York. You can nail as false any rumors that he will do a Broadway play, as he's due back at Paramount for a picture soon as his month-long sabbatical is over.

LIFE STATISTICS

Rumors Hit Crosby

Petty, pesky rumors are a dime a dozen in Hollywood. Some of them come out correct, more prove to be strictly malicious hokum. MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE sincerely hopes and can't help but believe that all the circulating rumors regarding a split between Bing Crosby and wife, Dixie Lee, are just so much foul air. There is much talk out here that a separation is in the offing. This can no doubt be traced to the fact that Bing is now in South America on a horse hunt, while Dixie has stayed home.

CONTRACTS

Key Kyser Inks Contract

Kay Kyser, the baton-wielding, snap-witted professor of one of America's favorite radio programs, insisted when he came to Hollywood for picture work that it would be for only one flicker a year. However, Kay's popularity was too much to be spared, and now his studio, RKO, has signed him for three more pictures. Some old Harold Lloyd properties are being tailored to fit him.

WINSOME ANN MILLER satisfied a life's ambition the night the above picture was taken at Ciro's—she danced with Tony DeMarco, famous exhibition dancer, who is appearing at the celebrated cafe

JUST PREVIOUS to entering active service as a lieutenant commander in the United States Navy, producer Gene Markey and Olivia de Havilland had this final date together at Ciro's. Markey is stationed in the Canal Zone

Photographs by Jack Albin and Wally Davis

FRANK FAY, veteran of musical comedy, vaudeville, films before Rudy Vallee introduced him to the radio audience some years ago, stars in new comedy-variety show Thurs., Oct. 23, on NBC

NEW SHOWS STARTING

THE MARINES are coming! At least two of them are. They're Captain Flagg and Sergeant Quirt of "What Price Glory" fame. Victor McLaglen (r.) and Edmund Lowe recreate film roles for NBC show, starting Sunday

MRS. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT will cover a broad field of topics, domestic and international, in her new program beginning on NBC this Sunday, September 28, under sponsorship of Latin-American coffee growers

JACK BENNY and Mary Livingstone, after a summer of rest, recreation (below) and Jack's filming of "Charley's Aunt," come back to NBC October 5

RADIO'S FALL PLANS

HELEN HAYES brings her dramatic show back to CBS Sunday, October 5. This year she'll perform more original radio plays

To help guide our readers in charting their own plans for this season's radio listening, herewith is presented a selective showcase of big shows. This feature is not meant to be a comprehensive catalog but rather a brochure of new shows and novel features, special plans, radical changes and shifts in personnel. As the fall season unfolds you will be kept completely up to date as usual in our program pages and the regular department, "This Week in Radio."—The Editors.

BULLETIN!

Pres. Roosevelt and Wendell Willkie will speak on the spectacular "Mobilization for Human Needs" program Friday night.

SPOTLIGHT SHOW

Flagg and Quirt Streamlined

"Captain Flagg and Sergeant Quirt," those red-blooded rowdies who loved to fight and fought to love in the memorable play and film, "What Price Glory," now pick up where they left off. Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe will recreate the famous Marine characters they immortalized on the screen in a new radio series beginning this Sunday, September 28, on NBC.

WELCOME BACK

Found: Baby Snooks!

In spite of recent rumors to the effect that Fanny Brice and her Baby Snooks creation would not be heard this season on "Coffee Time," MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE has it on reliable authority that the little brat and her antics will be just as much a comedy fixture as ever on the Thursday night NBC show. You may expect her tardy but spectacular entrance this Thursday, October 2.

Time Marches on Air Again

The off-and-on "March of Time" marches back on the air Thursday, October 9 (NBC), at one of the most opportune periods in history for the show's news-dramatization technique.

Hit Operettas Back

The "Chicago Theater of the Air," which last season thrilled listeners and drew over three thousand spectators to its final broadcast, returns to MBS for another season Saturday, October 4. The show will be seventy-five minutes long this year, will again present the world's best-loved operettas and talks by publisher Col. Robert McCormick and will again feature separate singing and acting casts. Henry Weber will conduct, Marion Claire will sing lead female roles, Betty Winkler, Bret Morrison, other well-known dramatic stars will perform, and such male singers as Igor Gorin, Allan Jones, John Carter and Jan Peerce will appear. William Bacher directs and the adaptations are made by Malcolm Meacham.

"Hobby Lobby" to Return

Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby," which was off the air last season after a very popular run, returns to the air Saturday, October 4, over CBS.

NEW PLANS

Allen Features Collegians

Fred Allen brings back his hour-long program this Wednesday, October 1, to CBS, with his cast intact, but with plenty of fresh comedy ideas and with an innovation in the form of a highlight spot for college talent.

Brighter "Big Town"

It will be a slightly brighter "Big Town" that returns to CBS Wednesday, October 8. Although the dramatic show starring Edward G. Robinson and Ona Munson will still present its crime-fighting, newspaper-publishing episodes, the general tone will not be as heavy as before. Robinson himself made this decision after questioning young cadet friends of his son, Manny, at Black-Foxe Military Academy.

Benny Wants to Travel

Jack Benny, returning to NBC Sunday, October 5, plans several innovations for this season. For one thing,

SPECIAL EVENTS THIS WEEK

THE WORLD SERIES in all its brilliant color bursts once again upon the American scene—beginning this Wednesday, October 1. Red Barber (above, left), of WOR, and Bob Elson (above, right), of WGN, will again describe the event for MBS' exclusive broadcast over 300-plus stations

REVEALED

he hopes to do much traveling about the country instead of originating all shows in Hollywood or New York.

CAST CHANGE

B. & A. Have New Colleagues

George Burns and Gracie Allen return Tuesday, October 7 (NBC). New to the show will be comedian-announcer Bill Goodwin, Paul Whiteman's orchestra, and a new vocalist selected by an extensive talent search.

HEAD START

Among the regular shows already returned to the air and the new programs already launched for the fall-winter season are the following: "The Great Gildersleeve" (Sun., NBC) stars Harold Peary, formerly a comedy stooge on the Fibber McGee show . . . "Family Hour" (Sun., CBS) presents a musical show starring soprano Gladys Swarthout and baritone Ross Graham . . . "Second Guessers" (Sun., NBC) presents sports authorities making football predictions and discussing the gridiron scene . . . "Chase and Sanborn Program" (Sun., NBC) again has its double comedy feature—the Bergen-McCarthy act and the Abbott-Costello team. Tip: Charlie McCarthy may develop more of a family life this season . . . "That Brewster Boy" (Mon., NBC), starring young Eddie Firestone, Jr., and written by Pauline Hopkins, promises to be another "Aldrich Family" success . . . Orson Welles' new drama show embraces a broad range in themes, forms and atmosphere; features Orson and his Mercury Players and surprise guest stars . . . Bob Burns as the "Arkansas Traveler" (Tues., CBS) appears in playlets each week . . . Bob Hope (Tues., NBC) will continue substantially as in previous seasons, with Frances Langford added as vocalist . . . "Three Ring Time" presents comedian Milton Berle, Charles Laughton in comedy and monolog roles, Shirley Ross as vocalist and Bob Crosby's orchestra in Mutual's biggest variety show (Fri.).

THIS WEEK

(See program pages and "Best Listening" boxes for times of programs mentioned below and also for additional information about the current week's guest stars and program details.)

Among this week's new and returning programs are the following:

Sunday: "Screen Guild Theater," presenting "Meet John Doe" (CBS); "The Shadow" (MBS); "Adventures of Bulldog Drummond" (MBS); "Ford Sunday Evening Hour," with Lawrence Tibbett as guest (CBS).

Monday: "Lum and Abner" (NBC); "Tom Mix' Straight Shooters" (NBC); "Jack Armstrong" (moving from NBC to MBS); "Captain Midnight" (MBS).

Tuesday: "Fibber McGee and Molly," with Gale Gordon added as a new stooge (NBC); "Treasury Hour" (NBC) (moving from Wednesday).

Thursday: "Service with a Smile," presented from Army camps by emcees Garry Moore and Ben Grauer (NBC).

Friday: "Kate Smith Hour," with Rae and Davis among guests (CBS); "Al Pearce and His Gang," with Andy Devine added as a stooge (CBS).

Football Experts Predict the Winners

THIS WEEK and every week during the football season the board of famous experts pictured below will make predictions on the outcome of the week's football games especially for Movie-Radio Guide. Working as teams, these coaches and writers will name the teams in their respective sections of the country, in their expert opinion, most likely to win. For games played by the coaches' own teams, probable winners will be selected by the sports writers alone, without assistance from the coaches. To keep up with the football picture, follow these experts in Movie-Radio Guide—and for further information on football, listen to them on "Second Guessers," heard each Sunday on NBC network (12 noon EST, 11 a.m. CST, 10 a.m. MST, 9 a.m. PST),

Star Sparkles

● The BAILEY SISTERS, featured soloists with Ben Bernie's orchestra on "Just Entertainment," never walk up to a mike to sing a number. They execute what they call their "good luck shuffle," which, according to the girls, "gets 'em in the mood for on-the-beam rhythm."

● ROBERT J. HAIG, who was recently added to the cast of "Young Dr. Malone" in the role of George Fredericks, has roped steers in Wyoming, toured the country in a tiny Crosley car and appeared in a few short-lived Broadway productions. He is six feet three inches tall and mighty happy to be playing a straight part again after being continually cast as a cowboy just because he worked on a ranch one summer and can turn on a Texas accent at will. He's been in New York the last two years, and hails from Collum, a little town in Illinois about one hundred miles from Chicago.

● HERBERT FOOTE, CBS staff organist, and Phil Stewart, announcer, are composers of one of the new popular tunes, "The Night That You Were Mine." Herb wrote the music and Phil furnished the lyrics. The melody is used as theme on all of Foote's CBS programs.

● LES TREMAYNE, star of "First Nighter," took advantage of the "First Nighter" time switch to fly to Mexico, Tuesday, September 9, with Mrs. Tremayne. The pair returned in time for the "First Nighter" broadcast Friday, September 19. Reason for the quick trip was Tremayne's hay fever, which Mexican climate seems to fix up pronto.

Beginning a program devoted to discussion of currently important economic issues by noted speaker, "What Would Be the Economic Consequences of Our Direct Participation in the War?"

MUSIC NOTES: Arturo Toscanini will not be back conducting the NBC Symphony Orchestra this season. Niles Trammell, president of NBC made the following announcement: "Arturo Toscanini having completed his contract with the National Broadcasting Company which covered four consecutive seasons, expressed the wish not to undertake at present any further commitments, as he feels the need for rest. However, we hope that Maestro Toscanini may decide at a later date to conduct the NBC Symphony Orchestra in a number of concerts." With this announcement came word that Leopold Stokowski had been signed as the symphony's new conductor. The symphony season opens on October 7 and will continue for twenty-eight or twenty-nine weeks; however, it will be heard on Tuesday nights this season instead of Saturdays as heretofore. For its twenty-first consecutive season the CBS network will present the Sunday afternoon concerts of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Society directed from Carnegie Hall. The concerts will start October 12, with Leopold Stokowski directing the first two broadcasts. He will be followed by John Barabari, Bruno Walter, Artur Rodzinski and Dimitri Mitropoulos. The first concert of the Philharmonic was held in 1842, and during its one-hundred-year career has presented the world premieres of many now-famous works, notably Donravik's "The Tempest" Symphony in 1893, a performance attended by the composer, who then was teaching in the United States. This Friday the world's famous Philadelphia Orchestra, under the direction of Eugene Ormandy, will begin its 1941-42 season of programs over the Mutual network. The Chicago Theater of the Air returns on October 4 over the Mutual network and will be heard for seventy-five minutes. The opening broadcast will be Franz Lehár's "The Merry Widow," starring Marion Claire, soprano, and Allan Jones, tenor.

CONDUCTOR FRITZ KITZINGER will take the podium of "NBC Summer Symphony" for the second of two concerts Saturday

Today in Radio

Murrow coming home from London; French crooner becomes soldier; a "Quiz Kid" graduates

GENERAL

Musical Fait Accompli

NEW YORK.—By the time you read this the music rift between ASCAP and NBC will have been peaceably settled—we hope—except for the approval of a few of the stations affiliated with NBC. The National Association of Broadcasters has formally approved the peace pact.

Trout Relieves Murrow

NEW YORK.—On October 14, Bob Trout, CBS newscaster, will Clipper across the Atlantic, bound for London, where he will relieve Edward R. Murrow, CBS head of the European bureau. Murrow will return to America for a rest that will probably last three or four months. He will undoubtedly have some vivid and revealing stories to tell about his harrowing experiences in the war capital.

NBC Signs Stokowski

NEW YORK.—Leopold Stokowski has been signed to conduct the NBC Symphony Orchestra during the 1941-42 season. He will succeed Arturo Toscanini, who conducted the fall and winter season for four years in a row. According to NBC officials, Mr. Toscanini "expressed the wish not to undertake any further commitments, as he feels the need for a rest." It was hoped, however, by the NBC officials that he could appear to conduct one or two concerts during the current season.

DEFENSE

And He Went

NEW YORK.—When singer Jean Cavall got himself a singing spot on NBC there were signs of immediate and enthusiastic listener-approval. In three months the French-born vocalist had topped the fan-mail receipts of all the NBC contract artists. Then one day Cavall received a letter from a fan which read as follows: "Why don't you go back to France and defend your country?" P. S. On September 27, Cavall is doing that very thing. He's joining the Canadian army in order that he can fight the enemies of the country of his birth.

Let Me at 'Em!

HOLLYWOOD.—In spite of the current Washington furor about whether or not radio and the movies are propagandizing, Arch Oboler is pleading for air time to dramatize the threat of Nazism and Fascism to the American way of life. The dynamic playwright, who has written many sharp dramatic indictments of the dictatorial systems, guarantees that he can deliver not only scripts for such a series of shows but also the cream of Hollywood talent to perform them—if he can get time on the air and a clear right of way for plain speaking.

A Banjoist and His Band

CHICAGO.—Eddie Peabody, the "National Barn Dance" banjo-banger who is also a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserves, has given up most of his civilian activities to act as band music and entertainment officer at the important Great Lakes Naval Training Station. There, with the assistance of Al Kvale, popular dance-band leader now a Navy lieutenant, Eddie has built, according to Navy officers, the finest band at the post since the late John Philip Sousa directed there.

Entertainment" series an old feud has been renewed—and it doesn't involve Winchell. Back in the early days when Bernie and Wayne King were first becoming favorites with Chicagoans, they indulged in an air feud over golf. Wayne has always been an expert golfer, Ben wasn't. But when they got around to playing an actual public match King's audience-shyness got the better of him and natural showman Bernie snowed him under. With both broadcasting once again from Chicago, and with Wayne audience-broken, he's out for revenge.

Long-Distance Song

HOLLYWOOD.—The "Buy a Bond" song you heard introduced on a recent "Treasury Hour" broadcast has a unique story behind it. Howard Dietz, who is M-G-M's publicity and advertising chief and also co-ordinator-chairman of the "Treasury Hour" production set-up, wrote the lyrics of the song in New York. They were airmailed to composer Arthur Schwartz in Hollywood. The next day Schwartz completed his melody and sang the tune for a transcription. This was rushed back to New York, where Al Goodman listened to it, wrote a score for the "Treasury Hour" orchestra. From inspiration to presentation "Buy a Bond" traveled across the continent and back in just a few days.

SIDELIGHTS

First-Hand Information!

HOLLYWOOD.—William L. Shirer, noted CBS correspondent formerly in Berlin, got a big laugh during his talk to Lockheed-Vega aircraft employes and families at their annual Santa Anita picnic recently when he dryly remarked: "I know you boys make good planes. I've been bombed by them (in Berlin) at least half a dozen times!"

Fairway Feud

CHICAGO.—With the arrival in Chicago of Ben Bernie for his new "Just

50 Hours for 20 Minutes

NEW YORK.—When Walter Pierson, head of CBS' sound-effects department, decided to make some recordings of Army-airplane sounds, he didn't know what he was running into. On the first trip the crew made to Mitchell Field they found things too noisy. Tractors, planes landing and landing crews talking intruded into the recordings of the planes flying overhead. For the second trip they went to a quiet farm near Brentwood, Long Island. A fog that day kept the Army planes grounded. Trip number three found the Army pilots away on maneuvers. Pierson was almost ready to give up. Trip number four, however, went off without a hitch. Glee-fully the staff rushed back to the city for a play-back. They were staggered when they heard the sounds of leaves and the rustling of grass, caused by the day having been windy. The staff worked another six hours transferring the undisturbed portion of the recordings to other disks. Total time spent on the recordings—fifty hours. Total time of recordings—twenty minutes.

"Quiz Kids" Chronicle

CHICAGO.—Two items rate headlines in the current news of the ever-news-worthy "Quiz Kids." Item one: Cynthia Cline, poetess and music author-

AMONG "inventions" Gracie Allen exhibited at Inventors of America National Convention at Los Angeles was this phone with two mouthpieces so you can do all the talking, no listening

EVER VIVACIOUS Irene Rich has become expert with her bee-keeping hobby, though at the cost of a few painful experiences! The actress of "Dear John" (Sun., NBC) recently celebrated eighth anniversary with same sponsor

NEW FACES
INCLUDED in this season's bumper crop of new radio voices are those of personalities pictured above and below. (1) Veteran showman Eddie Dowling is now emcee of "We, the People." (2) Fran Carden and Joe Julian rehearse for new sketch, "Bright Horizon." (3) Charlotte Manson is new star of "Stepmother." (4) Joan Alexander won role of Nicole Scott in "Against the Storm" ity who was one of the first and foremost of the juvenile experts, has become the staff's first graduate. On September 17 Cynthia made her twenty-fifth and final appearance on the show, because September 23 was her sixteenth birthday, putting her beyond the age limit for the "Quiz Kids." Item two: Jack Beckman, young he-man who has appeared on several sessions, broke his leg in an early scrimmage with the grid squad at St. Philip's High School in Chicago. In previous seasons he had broken both arms in other sports.

Tip for Radio Writers

CHICAGO.—George Roosen, well-known writer of the "Stepmother" serial, believes that radio authors might well begin considering the changes in script-writing technique that television will bring. He maintains that writing for television will have to combine the techniques of stage, screen and radio to make the finished product complete from both audible and visual standpoints. The motion-picture technique alone would not be adequate, Roosen argues, because in the theater dialog can be made secondary to action, but the restriction of television mechanics and detracting influences in the home will make continuous dialog and audible entertainment still primary in television.

PERSONAL

Goodwin Doubles in Comedy

HOLLYWOOD.—Bill Goodwin's able stooging on the Bob Hope show has won him a double job this season. He leaves the Hope show to take on announcing-acting duties with Burns and Allen and also on Mutual's big "Three Ring Time." Acting isn't new to Bill. He played in stock before breaking into radio ten years ago.

Local Girl Comes Home

DIXON, ILL.—Stores closed and the town turned out en masse in Dixon, Ill., September 15. It was Louella

Parsons Day in the columnist's home town, and she was on hand, accompanied by other celebrities, for a parade, a grand ball and two personal appearances at theaters. Proceeds from the affair were for a children's wing at the Dixon Hospital.

Bowes Vacates Apartment

NEW YORK.—Few of the millions of listeners to Major Bowes' "Amateur Hour" know that for twenty years the Major maintained a lavishly decorated twelve-room apartment on the sixth floor of the Capitol Theater building. Since relinquishing his long-time position as director of the famous theater the Major has been living at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, and the theater-apartment is being turned into a hide-away for visiting stars of M-G-M, owners of the theater.

Three Men on a Boat

HOLLYWOOD.—Al Pearce, who will bring his show back to the air October 3, played host last week-end to Humphrey Bogart and Andy Devine with a deep-sea fishing-expedition aboard his boat, the Audel.

PROGRAMS

"Town Meeting" to Return

NEW YORK.—"America's Town Meeting of the Air," long-time favorite in the forum bracket, is getting set for its seventh and probably its liveliest year on NBC. Once again its value as an educational, nonpartisan sustaining feature renders it: "Not for Sale." George V. Denny, Jr., originator of the institution, will again be moderator, and the program will follow its familiar pattern of well-known speakers debating and answering questions from the audience. The return date is October 16.

Steelmakers Carry On

WHEELING, W. VA.—Radio's unique industrial-family program, "Musical Steelmakers," will be back on the air this winter, beginning October 5, to continue the tradition which began inauspiciously enough with a one-time program on a local station. Invited to fill a spot in a series of weekly industrial programs on WWVA, Wheeling, back in 1936, J. L. Grimes, general advertising manager of the Wheeling Steel Corporation, pressed into service one of the company's employe musical groups. There was an immediate enthusiastic response from listeners and a clamor from all the "musical steelmakers" to be heard. The present successful program, which has presented over one thousand talented workers, is the result.

SHORTS

Hugh Studebaker, one of radio's leading actors for a dozen years, has taken over the role of Fred Minturn in CBS' "Right to Happiness," succeeding Arthur Kohl, who has transferred his dramatic activities to Hollywood . . . Also off to Hollywood to talk with movie executives is Janet Logan. Succeeding her in the title role in "Stepmother" is Charlotte Manson, who last season played the lead in "Society Girl" . . . Lorin Maazel, eleven-year-old prodigy who has conducted several NBC Symphony concerts this summer, is now the protege of Doris Duke Cromwell, tobacco heiress . . . Lulu Belle and Scotty are back on the "National Barn Dance" as regulars after a couple of years' absence working chiefly with WLW, Cincinnati . . . Amos 'n' Andy are flying from Hollywood to New York to see the Louis-Nova bout and the World Series . . . Clifton Fadiman, "Information, Please" emcee and literary authority, has collected a group of writings which have pleased him most during his twenty years' experience as a professional reader. The book, called "Reading I've Liked," has just been published . . . For the benefit of those who may be wondering what has become of Vaughn DeLoath, one of the long-time stars of radio, she is singing in a new commercial series on an Oklahoma City station.

 WORLD SERIES
 The first World Series game is scheduled to be broadcast at this time today. Although the New York Yankees had already clinched the American League pennant, the fight between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St.
 Louis Cardinals for the National League pennant was still undecided at press time. However, regardless of who wins the National League pennant, the first game will be played at Yankee Stadium.

Star Sparkles

● Members of MERLE KENDRICK'S orchestra, heard on "Bringing Up Father," won their posts only after demonstrating ability to play Bach as well as boogie-woogie.

● DURWARD KIRBY, "Club Matinee" master of ceremonies, started out to be a mechanical engineer at Purdue University. But he forgot all about that when he discovered the university's radio station.

● HUGH STUDEBAKER, Fred Minturn in "Right to Happiness," made his professional debut with Joe Sander's quartet at the age of twenty-one. From that time, until 1928, his career encompassed vaudeville, the concert stage, news butchering, farming, laundry work—and, of course, radio.

 WORLD SERIES

If Brooklyn wins the National League pennant, the third game of the World Series will be played at Ebbets Field today and broadcast at this time. However, should the St. Louis Cardinals win the honor of representing the National League, the third game of the World Series will be played tomorrow at Sportsman Park, St. Louis.

JAPS TRAIN PROPAGANDA GUNS ON U. S. LISTENERS

Cairo Now      Lutherans Broadcast      BBC's Major Heard in U. S.      to Occupied Countries      Murray Is Composer

Edited by

Charles A. Morrison

President, International DX'ers Alliance

"RADIO TOKYO" seems to be unusually anxious for reports on reception of its transmissions in North America. Hardly a night goes by but what the announcer requests communications from its United States listeners asking that these letters be sent to the Foreign Department, Nippon Hoso Kyokai (Broadcasting Corporation of Japan), Tokyo, Japan.

"Radio Tokyo's" many super-power transmitters are quite busy these days. Twelve separate transmissions, representing a total of thirty-four hours, in sixteen different languages are radiated daily. Of this total, four and a half hours daily are devoted to propaganda broadcasts for North America. The transmission to eastern United States is sent out daily from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. over JLG4 (15.105) and ica and almost the whole program from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. CST may now be heard. The broadcast begins with clock chimes; news in Egyptian is given at 2:45 p.m. CST. The station signs off with the national anthem at 3:00 p.m. CST.

General Notes

A station believed to be DXH2 (15.12), Warsaw, Poland, is being heard from approximately 5:00 to 10:00 a.m. CST . . . August Balbi of Los Angeles, Calif., writes HVJ (11.74), "Radio Vaticano," Vatican City, broadcasts a special program for Australia, early Mondays from 12:00 mid. to 12:30 a.m. CST . . . ZBW3 (9.52), Hongkong, Hongkong, is being heard with good signal strength on the West Coast from 4:00 to 8:15 a.m. CST . . . According to Roger Legge of Binghamton, N. Y., news in English is transmitted simultaneously by Finnish stations OFD (9.50), OFE (11.78) and OIE (15.19) daily at 2:50 and 6:55 p.m. CST. These news bulletins are intended primarily for reception in North America . . . LeRoy Waite, Ballston Spa, N. Y., reports reception of an air-mail registered letter of verification from "Radio Dakar" at Dakar, Senegal, West Africa. According to information given in this communication the station broadcasts daily at 6:15 a.m. CST on 6.435 and 13.355 megs, and at 1:15 p.m. CST on 6.435 and 9.41 megs. The latter frequency is the only one that has been heard in the United States. Programs from "Radio Dakar" open with the hymn "L'Infanterie de Marine" and close with "La Marseillaise" . . . The Rev. K. J. Touch, broadcasting from the Y. M. C. A. in Iceland in describing the arrival of the American convoy, stated that he and the other padres and soldiers on duty (they were only five) went down to the quay and handed out cups of British tea to the American marines. Many of them hadn't tasted tea before and found it took a bit of getting-used-to.

One soldier emptied several mugs over the quay before he acquired the taste. By dawn he had got the tea habit thoroughly, having drunk twenty-five cups.

Peeks at Personalities

Terig Tucci, Argentine conductor and composer, has been named music director of CBS' new Latin-American network . . . According to "London Calling," BBC news commentators are men of varied talents. One of them composed the national anthem of Iraq, which was first sung some eighteen years ago. He is Major Alan Murray, news commentator in the eastern service of the BBC, and it must have given him rather a thrill to read in the papers that when the regent, Emir Abdul Ilah, reenforced Bagdad the strains of his composition were the signal for the cutting of a sheep's throat. Major Murray is also the composer of many popular songs, including the favorite "I'll Walk Beside You" . . . Maurice English, war correspondent recently returned from Paris, France, has joined the staff of NBC's international division and is responsible for checking news and comment for factual and objective content so that its uniformity will be assured when broadcast in six languages.

Program Particulars—New

The Lutheran Church is broadcasting inspirational messages of encouragement to members who may otherwise be deprived of spiritual comfort in the occupied countries. Each Sunday at 2:00 p.m. CST a different language is used in rotation, namely English, German, Norwegian, Danish, Finnish, Swedish. Dial WRUL (15.35) at 8:00 or 6:04 megs . . . "Strictly from Dixie," a new musical program featuring Joseph Levine and orchestra, with Helene Horn as vocalist, is broadcast Sundays from 7:00 to 7:15 a.m. CST over NBC stations WRCA (17.78) and WNBI (11.89).

SUX (7.865), at Cairo, has been broadcasting an all-Arabic program for domestic reception for the past several years. Due to the unfavorable frequency this station was seldom heard in this country. Now, however, "Radio Cairo" has switched its transmissions to SUV, which operates on 10.055 megs. The new channel is favorable for reception in North Amer-

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE'S

THEATRE of the AIR

Presents

MARTHA JACKSON is a force for good in her own home and the whole community of Farmington. Devoted wife, understanding mother, she guides her family through crises with wisdom born of confidence that right will prevail

JIM JACKSON, Martha's kind and gentle husband, is confined to a wheelchair as a result of an accident. He feels himself a burden on Martha, although everything she does emphasizes that her love for him is deeper than pity

"Woman of Courage"

PART I

MARTHA JACKSON, wife of an invalid, mother of a glamour-struck daughter and an adopted son, loved by another man, is the "Woman of Courage" in this serial. And with all of her problems, Martha Jackson can put to good use her abiding philosophy, "If ye have faith, nothing shall be impossible." There were worries over the family's financial troubles too—until Martha came into a large, unexpected inheritance. But Martha's credo works. Recent example was a court decision awarding legal custody of Tommy to the Jacksons when the judge saw through a scheme of Tommy's father and stepmother to extort $10,000 for giving him up. For the story of Martha Jackson, tune in Monday through Friday (CBS) with these pictures of the cast before you.

THE CAST

| Character       | Player         |
|-----------------|----------------|
| Martha Jackson  | Selena Royle   |
| Jim Jackson     | Albert Hecht   |
| Tommy Jackson   | Larry Robinson |
| Lucy Jackson    | Joan Tetzel    |
| Cora Jackson    | Tess Sheehan   |
| George Harrison | Horace Braham  |
| Lillian Burke   | Enid Markey    |
| Mrs. Sullivan   | Doro Merande   |

TOMMY, adopted son of Martha and Jim, has the usual boyish growing-up pains that make life interesting, sometimes difficult, for parents

GEORGE HARRISON, a bachelor, is in love with Martha. Knowing that his love is not returned, he stands by as a loyal, respected friend

LUCY, the Jacksons' teen-age daughter, goes for out-of-town glamour boys, has young Johnny Long to fall back on

Photographs by Padula, CBS

SELDOM on speaking terms, Cora Jackson (l.), Jim's sister, and Lillian Burke, Martha's sister, are thorns in the family side. Cora is specialist on party-line telephone; Lillian is inveterate day-dreamer, hates household duties

MRS. SULLIVAN (above) has come to the Jackson home as housekeeper and maid. Since the Jacksons have bought a handsome new house with their new wealth, she has complained about work, asked for helper

Meet Your News Commentator:

Fulton Lewis, jr. Washington Expert

CHIEFLY because of Fulton Lewis, jr.—and his scrappy disposition—radio commentators today can cover Washington with the same inside-track facilities enjoyed by newspapermen. Lewis fought for radio correspondents' space in the galleries of Congress, for recognition at White House, departmental press conferences. He got it all, but only after the passage of a national law. In 1937 Lewis—then a Washington correspondent-columnist—became interested in radio when he pinch-hit for a friend. Soon after, he was on the air with his own program, went to bat for radio's rights in the nation's Capital. Today he's heard over 150 Mutual stations five times a week.

Thirty-eight, Washington-born, Lewis is an old-timer at covering the Capital, with countless personal contacts garnered from a fourteen-year newspaper career. Because he subscribes to no news services and gathers all his own news, he gets the news fresh, much of it through telephone conversations, making as many as fifty calls a day in town or out of town, whenever a story is brewing. Members of Congress have chosen him the best network commentator on national news.

Lewis lives with his wife, the former Alice Huston of Chattanooga, Tenn., on their seventy-five-acre farm in southern Maryland. They have two children—Betsy, nine, and Buddy, five. Mrs. Lewis is her husband's chief advisor, helps him make many contacts, has even written columns for him. Their pet hobby is the farm, but covering news-jammed Washington leaves little time for hobbies.

FEVERISH SCARE STORIES on which some commentators rely are totally absent from broadcasts of Fulton Lewis, jr. He has fresh, authentic Washington news, reports it simply, with occasional dry humor

A FIFTH-GENERATION Washingtonian, Lewis is quite at home with politics such as Senate majority leader Alben Barkley, with whom he jokes here. Personal friendships all over the Capital are behind news, important news angles Lewis presents

WOODCRAFT AND FISHING (below, right and left), added to music, make Lewis a hobbyist de luxe. For four years he conducted a fishing-column in the Washington "Herald." But Lewis is no recluse at home. He and Mrs. Lewis do a lot of formal entertaining, but they most enjoy informal parties in the country

THE LEWIS CHILDREN, Betsy and Buddy, idolize their father, have fun with him at the Lewises' southern Maryland farm on his days off. This summer they built a typical white-clapboard farmhouse on the land, are currently planning a playhouse

LEWIS is as enthusiastic about music and composing as about news-gathering, wrote the famed "Cavalier Song" of the University of Virginia. Photograph of President is inscribed, "From one President to another." (Lewis was president of Radio Correspondents)

Movie-Radio Guide VISITS:

AFTER A TEN-YEAR CAMPAIGN to popularize Latin music in the U. S., Xavier Cugat (above, l.) now rides the crest of dance-band popularity. He got start as a concert violinist

MRS. CUGAT, the lovely Carmen Castillo, plays guitar, sings on show as Nico Lopez (l.) beats rhythm and Angel Santos shakes maracas. Costumes dazzle studio audience

Xavier Cugat's Latin-American Rumba Revue

DRAWING cartoons of celebrity friends like those of fellow band-leaders reproduced on these pages is a favorite avocation with Xavier Cugat, but his big job is music, Latin music. Unlike much of the Latin music broadcast in the U. S., which is amateurish or just plain phony, Xavier Cugat's happens to be the genuine article.

Transplanting conga drums, maracas, the bongo and all the exciting instruments from south of the border to Radio City, placing them in the hands of Latin musicians, this great popularizer of rumba and tango music presents a broadcast Thursdays over NBC which Latin Americans themselves can proudly accept as their own—and do. Since last year Cugat's music has been broadcast via short wave to South America.

Cugat's success with Latin music is no accident. Born in Spain, he was a professional violinist at ten when he went to Cuba, where the strange Afro-Spanish-American rhythms got into his blood. Today the wild, pulsating rhythms he presents are part of himself. It's the real thing—and this photographic visit to Cugat's show provides ample proof.—J. C.

GREATEST SINGER of Afro-Cuban melodies in U. S. is Cugat's Cuban-born Miguelito Valdes. He specializes in mixed dialects brought to Cuba by African slaves, uses conga drum

GLAMOROUS LINA ROMAY'S singing ranges from hot Mexican, other Latin-American rhythms to popular U. S. hits. Her pet peeve is being mistaken for Mary Astor!

NOVELTY NUMBERS on "Rumba Revue" are given added zest by the nine-voice chorus directed by Ken Christie. Appearing in formal evening dress, these singers are experts, furnish background music for other broadcasts, too

NEXT WEEK — BASIN STREET CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY

D LATIN AMERICA

SCENE-SETTER Bert Parks introduces songs and stars with words designed to match mood of dreamy Cugat music. Sometimes he sings

SOUTH OF THE BORDER, listeners to NBC's international stations hear Parks' remarks duplicated in Spanish by Ken Smith

Cugat

NBC Photographs

PLEASED AS PUNCH when he can pull out his drawing-board, Cugat knocked off caricatures of famous maestri (above) for Movie-Radio Guide. He's been cartoonist for Los Angeles "Times," is now illustrating a book of biographies for Waverly, Boston publishers. He's a showman always!

BANDSTAND NOTES

By Maurice Granger

A YEAR ago this fall, the writer suggested to a Hollywood movie producer that a picture be made which would depict the true story of the birth and growth of jazz. While your correspondent does not claim to have thus stimulated the present rash of movies dealing with the history of jazz, it does give him pleasure to have been aware of the need to tell pictorially the story of this completely American music. At present there are two movies, to be released shortly, which have as their basic story the growth of jazz. The first is Paramount's "Birth of the Blues," and the second is Warner Bros.' "New Orleans Blues." The Paramount picture features Bing Crosby, Mary Martin and Jack Teagarden's band. It tells the story of the first "white band" to play the blues. The band you will see in the film is a seven-piece combo from Jack's much larger band.

Bandata

Two of bandleader Charlie Barnet's men were killed in an auto crash in Los Angeles last month. The men were guitarist Bus Etri and Lloyd Hundling, a member of Charlie's Quintones... Frankie Carle, Horace Heidt's pianist, has been discharged from Mayo Clinic and is convalescing at his home in Springfield, Mass... Although Bonnie Baker is leaving him, Orrin Tucker isn't going to change the name of his new cabin cruiser. It's named Bonnie Bee... Despite a rainstorm fifty thousand people were on hand to hear Benny Goodman and his band share honors with the Women's Symphony Orchestra at a band concert in Grant Park in Chicago last month... Horace Heidt's "I'm in a Little Teapot" is such a hit tune that the Lipton Tea Company is "adopting" it as their theme song... Raymond Scott has had some plastic surgery done on his proboscis... D'Artega is a busy orchestra-leader these days. He has four different combinations working, all string, all brass, mixed and a band.

Vocalists

Bonny Boyd is the name of the vocalist replacing Dee Keating with Al Donahue's orchestra... Meredith Blake, ex-Gray Gordon singer, replaces Mary Ann Mercer with Mitchell Ayres' band. Mary Ann departed the Ayres outfit in favor of a regular radio spot... The new vocal with Artie Shaw's band is Bonnie Lake, wife of former bandleader Jack Jenney and sister of Ann ("Maisie") Sothorn.

RECORD MENDED

VICTOR: "The Birth of the Blues," an album by the Dixieland jazz group of the Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street. BLUEBIRD: "Fats" Waller's, "Come and Get It"; Dolly Dawn's "Are You Faithful"; Vaughn Monroe's "Two in One"; Glenn Miller's

HOW DO YOU KNOW YOU CAN'T WRITE?

Have you ever tried? Have you ever attempted even the least bit of training, under competent guidance? Or have you been sitting back as it is so easy to do, waiting for the day to come when you will awaken all of a sudden to the discovery, "I am a writer?" If the latter course is the one of your choosing, you probably never will write. Lawyers must be law clerks. Doctors must be internes. Engineers must be draftsman. We all know that, in our times, the egg does come before the chicken.

It is seldom that anyone becomes a writer until he (or she) has been writing for some time. That is why so many authors and writers spring up out of the newspaper business. The day-to-day necessity of writing in order to gather material about which to write—develops their talent, their insight, their background and their confidence as nothing else could.

That is why the Newspaper Institute of America bases its writing instruction on journalism—continuous writing—the training that has produced so many successful authors.

"Since reporting the sale of my first attempt at a magazine article, I have written three others, also four feature stories now accepted by the local newspaper. The credit is all yours. When you consider that I'm a driver for the local bus company, you can readily see my time is well taken up."

—Herman R. Bach, Box 113, Pacific Grove, Calif.

Learn to write by writing

NEWSPAPER Institute training is based on the New York Copy Desk Method. It starts and keeps you writing in your own home on your own time. Week by week you receive actual assignments, just as if you were right at work on a great metropolitan office. Your writing is individually corrected and constructively criticized. Thoroughly experienced, practical, active writers are responsible for this instruction. Under such sympathetic guidance, you will find that (instead of trying to copy someone else's writing tricks) you are rapidly developing your own distinctive, self-flavored style—undergoing an experience that has a thrill to it and which at the same time develops in you the power to make your feelings articulate.

Many people who should be writing become awestruck by fabulous stories about millionaire authors and therefore give little thought to the $25, $50 and $100 or more that can often be earned for material that takes little time to write—stories, articles on business, facts, travel, sports, recipes, etc.—things that can easily be turned out in leisure hours, and often on the impulse of the moment.

Continuous Action For Hours

With Safe New Way in Feminine Hygiene

The young wife who is sure of certain facts can feel happily secure. In feminine hygiene her physical and mental health, her very happiness itself depend on accurate information. Over-strong solutions of acids which endanger her health are a thing of the past.

Today thousands of informed women have turned to Zonitors—the safe new way in feminine hygiene. These dainty snow-white suppositories kill germs, bacteria instantly at contact. Deodorize—not by temporary masking—but by destroying odors. Spread a greaseless protective coating to cleanse antiseptically and give continuous medication for hours.

Yet Zonitors are safe for delicate tissues. Powerful against germs—yet non-poisonous, non-caustic. No apparatus; nothing to mix. Come 12 in a package, each sealed in individual glass bottles. Get Zonitors at your druggist today.

FREE: Mail this coupon for revealing booklet of intimate facts, sent postpaid in plain envelope. Zonite Products Corporation, Dept. 403-A, 310 Lexington Avenue, New York, N.Y.

WITH FRONT LACES FOR PERFECT ADJUSTMENT

Tum-E-Lift is scientifically constructed to provide perfect comfort, perfect support. Adjustable front panels, real lustrous satin, control your figure the way you want it—merely tighten or loosen the laces—and presto! your mid-section is re-shaped to a slenderized, healthful, flat-fronted posture!

HOLLYWOOD INSPIRED! HOLLYWOOD DESIGNED!

Here's the secret of Tum-E-Lift—it's made of 3-way s-t-r-e-t-c-h elastic material—a lightweight material that's powerfully strong. Washing actually preserves its strength. Sixteen metal ribs in front—supplementary ribs in back absolutely prevent "redding-up," curling, rolling or bulging. Extra strong 12-strand elastic lacing holds belt snugly at waist and thighs. Detachable barter. Color: Nude—Beauty fabric pattern. Detachable covers of soft, smooth, melange for personal convenience. An exclusive, slenderizing abdominal contour—obtainable only from us.

FITS COMFORTABLY SNUG—LOOK INCHES SLIMMER AT ONCE!

Just like magic, Tum-E-Lift smooths out and lifts up your bulging "tummy" and lends immediate relief to weakened abdominal muscles. You look inches slimmer instantly—the moment you put it on! You feel and see the difference at once! Tum-E-Lift fits you snug as a glove—it helps relieve strain and fatigue. Yet, Tum-E-Lift is flexible—it allows you complete freedom of movement! Bend, stoop, walk, sit, recline—this marvelous support is always delightfully comfortable!
