International Conference

ADHESION AND ADHESIVES: SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND APPLICATIONS

3-5 September 1980 at Grey College, University of Durham

The Adhesives and Polymer Properties Group of the Plastics and Rubber Institute have organised the above International Conference to be held in the historic City of Durham.

The aims are to present current advances, from throughout the world, in the understanding and uses of adhesives.

To date forty papers have been contributed from Eire, France, Germany, Russia, United Kingdom and the United States and will be presented in both formal and poster sessions. They cover such topics as surfaces and surface analysis, developments in tough adhesives, environmental attack, stress analysis and failure criteria, elastomeric adhesives, aerospace applications etc.

Late contributions will still be considered and short abstracts should be forwarded to the Plastic and Rubber Institute.

For further information and registration forms please contact Sally Welford, The Plastics and Rubber Institute, 11 Hobart Place, London SW1W 0HL, England (01-245 9555).
