International Journal of POLYMERIC MATERIALS

Editor: Herman S. Kaufman (USA)

Associate Editors: S.L. Aggarwall (USA), E.H. Andrews (UK), A.G.H. Dietz (USA), A.J. Kovacs (France), S. Matsuoka (USA), M. Takayanagi (Japan)

The International Journal of Polymeric Materials meets the need for the presentation and understanding of reliable polymer property information which can help the designer, fabricator and consumer in optimizing the choice and use of polymers, particularly as engineering materials.

Emphasis is placed on the understanding of mechanisms and the interaction of engineering properties with chemical structure, morphology, processing techniques, end-use applications and environment.

The journal is interdisciplinary in nature and contributions from chemists, physicists, engineers and designers are welcome.
